

April 15, 1990

JEY is here. JEY comes now in response to that which is a meeting of the OMEGA group and would ask each of you to remain in a state of meditation. JEY to come to advise each of you who are here that it is the will of the one who is the Creator that JEY should bring information that is of importance to you with regard to that which is the meeting that is to come. JEY is aware of all the information that you have been seeking to accrue within this which is the group at this time, and so allow JEY to say this. ... that all will indeed fall in place as it needs to be. You need not have concern about that which is to be. But allow JEY also to tell that there is a need for you to understand that those who are coming to you at this time are indeed coming because they have an inner need for that which is truth; and thus it is that you should be prepared to share with them the purpose of the OMEGA group and that which you have been lead to understand and to believe as a result of that which is the OMEGA. Be aware that those who are coming to you at this time, in the meeting that is to come, are to be made aware that indeed they are OMEGA. As it has been told to you in the past, you need not be concerned about seeking out others to become members of this which is the OMEGA group, but rather they would be lead to you. And so it is that those of you who are here in this place at this time are acting as a magnet for others who are seeking truth and others who are seeking to be associated with you as a member, simply because they are OF OMEGA. Be aware at this time that your hearts and your minds will be opened to that which you must share with each one who comes; and it is the will of the Creator that you share openly and readily with all those who come.

JEY would ask at this time that as you consider that which is a structure for the meeting which is to come that you consider opening one segment of that which is the structure for all those who are new to the OMEGA group. In other words, you should have that which would be an orientation in order that you would be able to allow them to fully understand the beginning of the OMEGA and the purpose of the OMEGA, and that which has occurred within the OMEGA which has lead you thus far.

JEY will attempt at this time to attune your hearts and minds to further needs that you should address at the time of the meeting. As you are aware, there is a purpose for the OMEGA group. This purpose will be made clear to ALL who are in attendance at the meeting; but further, you are to understand that as that purpose is made clear, there will be those who will need to share with you their understanding of that which is spiritual to them. In other words, many have been given gifts that must be shared with others who are to come at this time. As you allow others, then, to participate in the meeting, you then will share with others those things that YOU have come to know, which YOU have been given that are of spiritual value.

It must be understood by ALL who are in attendance that indeed the purpose of this group, above all, is to grow in spirit. And so each one must be lead to understand that all gifts simply come because it is the will of God. But first, they must seek after that which is spiritual. Those gifts then must be used for the glory of God and for that which would be the helping of all others who are spirits in body on Earth at this time. And so they must understand this.

JEY would ask an opportunity to communicate with all who are in the group at the time of the meeting. In other words, JEY wishes to have the opportunity to address who are in attendance, and for this purpose. There is a necessity at the time of the meeting for the one who is Michael to come to address those who are in attendance. And so it is that JEY will simply act as a gatekeeper for this which is the group that is to be in attendance. Michael will be able to give that which is necessary for the complete understanding of all at that time. And so you simply need to be in prayer for further guidance. There is nothing that you need to be concerned about. Simply allow all these truths to be given through the one who is channel by the one who comes to you as Michael the Archangel.

JEY would at this time also accept your own wishes with regard to that which you feel will be necessary for you to share with others who are coming. Each of you have been given a gift; and so JEY would suggest that you may very well wish to share that which is the ability you have with those who are coming. They come because they are seeking truth. Else, why would they seek to come the distances that they are traveling to come here to Morehead, this area in which you live? Why else would they come this distance if they were not seeking for truth? It is known that their spirit within them is indeed exerting an influence that is encouraging them to come here, to be in your midst, because that spirit within them is indeed that which you have known in another lifetime. And you must understand that as you meet, you will feel this great spiritual gathering here that will attest to each of you that you are here as that which is a group known as brotherhood on earth...each of those who have been lead to understand their brotherhood to you and you to them.

JEY would further ask that you seek within your own hearts and minds that which you feel will be important for you to seek to tell others who are coming here to be in your midst. Each of you have much knowledge now. Each of you have the ability to share with others. And so as you welcome others into your midst, seek to share those things that you feel will be of great spiritual value to them, not necessarily that which would be your gift, but first share with them the love, the feeling of great spiritual kinship that you must be aware of at the time when they arrive.

JEY would further ask that you prepare to receive one at this time who will come to you with additional information. JEY is well aware that this one has communicated in the past, but there is a need at this time for you to open your hearts and minds for this one to be in your midst and to communicate. And so it is that JEY would ask you to be at peace at this moment.

AMEN! This one comes now again as the one who is known to you as Michael the Archangel and would come with love and with that which is peace and with knowledge that you are indeed growing in spiritual understanding. But allow this one who comes as Michael simply to encourage each of you to be more in a time of meditation and opening your hearts and minds to receive truth that can be given to you through thought process. This one who comes as Michael the Archangel will tell you that indeed in the days to come it will be vitally important that each of you spend time daily in meditation as you prepare to welcome others to come to you midst in the time of the meeting to come. This one who also suggest to you that you continue in prayer, that each of you would be strengthened to the fullest extent to enable you to deal with all those who will come and also to deal with those events which will take place as they are here in your midst. You must, under all circumstances, show love, show peace, and show that which is a spiritual understanding to others who are in your midst.

MICHAEL would ask each of you, also, to be very deeply aware of the needs of that one who has been coming to you from that which is a star region. MICHAEL would ask that you continue in prayer for that one. It is necessary inasmuch as great responsibility has been given to that one; and so it is that your prayers will strengthen that one and help that one who comes to you as Secha in order to be able to do that which is necessary on Earth at this time. And so it is that Michael would at this time seek to allow that one to come to communicate with you. It is a necessity at this time. Understand that as this one comes to be in your midst, it is necessary because of the fact that this one does come as spirit in a life form... It is necessary for this one to enter the being of the channel in order to communicate. This will be explained to you at a later time; but be aware that is a necessity, but the one who is channel is protected. You need have no fear. That one must have no fears. You are deeply aware at this time of the importance of that one who comes to you, and you must continue to understand it is the will of the Creator that this occur. And so at this time Michael would ask that you receive, in your hearts and your minds, the one who comes to you at this time as Secha. Be at peace with that which is to occur.

SECHA comes. SECHA is aware that you are here at this time to receive information, and SECHA would ask that each of you continue in prayer for this one. It is not an easy task for this one to come and to enter this which is channel; but you must understand that Secha does indeed have the ability to do so, and Secha will continue to do so as long as it is the will of the Creator for this to occur. Secha would ask each of you now to be able to understand this which is to be given at this time.

p. 3 of 6

You have been told that Secha has the opportunity and the responsibility to come to you to help you to understand the physical aspects of the area in which you live and the physical aspects of that which is to be the chaos upon the Earth Planet. And so Secha has been preparing, has been investigating, and has indeed been here on your Earth Planet for many years as you would call Earth time. Be aware that this has been known to others who are in the Universe for many, many years, that which is to occur on the Earth Planet. And so it is that we have been lead to come to assist you who are here .

At this time allow Secha to share this information. with you. You are preparing at this time for that which is an understanding, a fuller understanding, of that which is the chaos. Secha would ask you to look at it in this way. First, be aware that life as you know it on this Earth Planet at this time seems to be centered more or less within your family unit, within your own community. You are at peace in these areas. You are at peace within your family unit, within the area in which you live. However, there is a necessity for you to understand that at a time when there is to be a great disruption of life as you know it upon this Earth Planet, that many family units will be totally in disarray. Many communities will be in total disarray. Therefore, when something as important to you as this kind of unity is destroyed, you will find that there are many, many spirits in body on this Earth Planet who, although they will survive that which is the chaos, are simply not going to be able to cope with that which has occurred. There will be many within the family unit who will be destroyed; there will be no longer homes in which to live; there will be no longer that which is a work place within the community in which they have been able to earn that which is necessary to buy that which they need. There will be nothing in the way of that which is now so convenient for them that they have so enjoyed in the past. And so when this occurs, there is going to be a need not only for you to understand their physical needs, but their emotional needs that must be met. Mental aspects are going to have to be dealt with. Are you prepared at this time, in your own heart, to deal with such? SECHA would ask you at this time to allow Secha to come to you and give to you that which will be a gift from the star region from which we came.

In that star region, there is an advanced state that you once knew that allows you to be able to penetrate that which is the thinking, the thought of others. This is not to be abused. It was never to be abused in that land in which you lived in the Star Region. It was a gift that you had. You could understand the thoughts of another; you could help another through thought. And this is what is going to be necessary for you to do on this Earth Plane at the time of the Chaos. This is a physical matter, not a spiritual matter. It is a physical matter. And so Secha would come to tell you that at this moment within the OMEGA group, Secha is able to renew that which is your memory to the extent that you are going to be able to slowly remember that which you were able to do within that time which was eons ago. You are at this moment to be able to open the mental process and allow this again to be renewed within you. You then, once you have been able to recall this ability and to use it fully, you then are going to have a very powerful ability within your physical body at this time. It must not be mistreated and misused in any way. This must come as an understanding on your part. It cannot be misused in any way. You will have the ability to understand others' thoughts and others' intentions. This is indeed an invasion of their privacy and it is important that you be able to so hone this skill so that when it comes time for the chaos, it will be usable to you. Understand that this does come to you with a responsibility.

Secha can only do this because you have indeed had this ability at one time, and so it is upon your own spirit that this is now an actuality that can be brought to you at this time and used by you.

Secha would ask, also, that each of you would accept this. It will be necessary for each of you at the time of the chaos to be in that which you will need to know as a peak physical condition. In that which was the Star Region from which Secha came and which you at one time knew, there was not that which you would call an aging factor as you know it at this time. The life span on this which is the Earth Planet is very short, and the physical body which you have ages very quickly; in other words, from the time when this body arrives upon this Earth until the time when it must leave because it can no longer function, it is a very short period of time. We who are from the Star Region do not have this problem. There is no that aging factor that is involved to the extent that is involved here on the Earth Planet. And so it is a responsibility of Secha at this time to come to each of you in this meeting at this moment and will indeed come to those who will attend in the day to come, to help you to overcome that aging factor which is built into your physical bodies, this Earth body. Secha has the ability to do this. And so at this moment, if you will sit very quietly, Secha will indeed come to you and so treat that which is your physical body, that indeed this aging factor will be slowed to an extent that you will not need to age further. That time which is the chaos is going to need you in peak physical condition, and you will find that you are going to be given such added energy and your body is indeed going to be able...not only not to age, but in some cases to reverse that which is aging. This is a gift of God, but it is also a physical thing that can be given to you through this one who comes as Secha. And so if you will at this time to receive this, it can be given to you.

p. 4 of 6

If you will at this time simply believe that from the head you have on this body to that which is your feet on this body, that these cells within your body can be so rejuvenated that indeed they can begin to retard that which is the aging process. It can be so. At this time, allow it to be.

And so Secha now comes, having done that which is necessary for this time. But Secha would like at this moment to address you on another matter.

Within this which is your community, you have the advantage that is necessary to overcome much during the time of the chaos, inasmuch as that which is the area has those places that you might call caves, and you also have the hills within your area that form a natural barrier for the high winds that will sweep this which is the Earth planet. It will behoove you at this time to begin to look upon those hills and to see those hills that appear to be 'strongholds' against very strong winds that will push through the area. Such strongholds will appear to be higher areas than others and they also will appear to you to be areas that perhaps closing into a ravine where there might be a flat area in between... certainly an area large enough that you could have a shelter. It is not necessary for you at this very moment to consider building a shelter such as that, but it will come in the time ahead. Simply be preparing to find that which is necessary for you. You will be told the type of shelter that will be safe for you then to consider erecting in order that you will be safe during the time of the chaos.

Secha sees within that which is the future of the Earth Planet a time of great change, but also a time of great peace and great perfection following that which is the chaos. And it is with pleasure that those of us who come to you from other Universes are able to see that this is going to be coming about upon the Earth planet. It has been feared that mankind would totally destroy this Earth Planet on which you find yourself as spirits in body; and mankind has come very close to doing that. Now there is an awakening, and it would appear that much is going to be salvaged that would not otherwise have been done. And so is to your benefit at this time if you would enter in to that which would be the saving of your environment in which you live; in other words, consider those things that damage the environment and enter in... actively enter in...to doing those things that will increase the value of the environment in which you live. Secha can only encourage you to do this. Secha cannot force, but can only tell you that it will make the transition from life as you know it at this time to life as it will be after the chaos... it will make it easier for you and those you love and those who are to survive within the communities

It is known to Secha that often that who are here as spirit in body find it very difficult to imagine that such a thing can occur. Secha wishes to advise you at this time that indeed it is occurring at this time. Changes are taking place within the Earth to the extent that already it is beginning to occur. It is to be a slow process, but it is to occur in the final stages very abruptly. Changes are occurring. And if you wish for confirmation of this which Secha is telling you, simply seek within that which is the scientific journals at this time for the changes that already are being documented that are occurring within the Earth Planet on which you live. You will find that over the years they have indeed been occurring. And so it would be to your advantage that you not neglect to do those things that are going to help you survive this which is going to be a very difficult time for very many on the Earth Planet.

Secha comes now, well aware that you have much to do; and so Secha would come again to welcome you as a brother and to give you that which is a feeling of love with the knowledge that we will meet again. And so Secha comes now, bidding you farewell for this time.

Michael comes at this time and would ask each of you to be in a time of seeking within your spirit the understanding that you need at this time of that which has been given to you. Michael comes also, providing you again with energy that will help you in the days to come as you prepare for that which is the meeting of the OMEGA. Will you at this time allow this one to give to you that which is spiritual energy from the one who is the Creator?

Peace be with you. Accept this and know that you are indeed in the love and the care of those who come to you. Peace be with you.

JEY is here, and JEY is well aware that indeed many of you may question that you may need to have answered with regard to that which is the coming meeting; and JEY would at this time seek that you ask in order that this one may be able to ask.

Sherry: JEY, this is Sherry. Will I receive the information from California (note: regarding the building of the solar ovens) to give the demonstrations for the children?

JEY hears your question and would tell you this. That information which you are seeking will indeed come to you; but understand this. You already have within your own thinking all that is necessary to know at this time, to give such demonstrations with those with whom you will be working. Simply allow that to begin now to take place in order to do that which is necessary for the children. Understand that the information that you receive certainly will be beneficial to you; but you have within your own ability at this time that which you will need to do. And JEY would advise that you begin now to construct that which is necessary. Is there another question?

Charlette: JEY, this is Charlette. We have tried to foresee all that might occur that would benefit everyone in the OMEGA to the fullest extent spiritually (for the meeting). Have we overlooked anything that we need to make prior arrangements on?

JEY hears and would advise you in this way. JEY has given you information at this time, but be aware that the one who is Michael will indeed come to your midst, and it is recommended at this time that you allow that one to begin your meeting in order that information may be given that would set the tone for the rest of the meeting. JEY would further advise that you consider preparing a structured approach to the meeting, in order that you can lay out that in outline in order to foresee the things that may be necessary. As far as this one can tell, at this moment, there appears to be nothing that can go wrong. You are in the care of those who come to you as your guides and those who have come as teachers. Understand that as each one of them and brings with them the energy that is to be dispersed throughout the group, all will be lead in the direction in which they should go. JEY would ask that if it is for your own understanding and knowledge that you need at this time for a more structured touch, that you begin to lay out that which you would seek to observe during the time of the meeting.

Is there an additional question?

Sherry: JEY, this is Sherry again. During this past week, I felt that Secha had tried to make contact with me. I am wondering if this is so.

JEY hears and JEY would ask you this. During those times where you feel that you are in the presence of that which is spiritual or that which is an entity, are you at that time seeking for guidance and protection? (Yes) Then allow JEY to say this. If you are indeed in a time of seeking guidance and protection and you feel the presence of that which would be spirit or entity, simply invite that one to make self known to you, with the understanding only if it is the will of God that it be so. In that way you can be assured that the one who is coming is indeed as you suspect it to be. JEY would not ask that you would open your heart and mind to all who you would feel are in your presence, but only those who are there as the will of God. Is this clear? (Yes) Is there an additional question?

Charlette: JEY have one question. Two or three weeks ago, I was awakened in the middle of the night by a 'spiritual runner' seeking my prayers for a member of the OMEGA group, which I felt at that time to be Gena Beck. Will you speak to this?

JEY hears, and as you are aware, there is much which each of you are learning within the OMEGA group. As you have learned in the past, there are those spirits who have varying responsibilities in the spirit realm, even as JEY has a responsibility to come to you as gatekeeper for the OMEGA group. There are others who are much aware of those who come with varying degrees of knowledge and expertise who have come to you. And so you must understand that that which you would know as a 'runner' is simply a spirit that has the ability to bring to you information that is of necessity to you at the moment. There is a need for you to understand that in all areas of your Earth life, as you are spirit in body, there are needs that must be met. And so, as you have been told, those who of the OMEGA lead that which is a closely bound existence on this which is the Earth plane, and JEY would tell that what affects one within the OMEGA will affect another. And so, if there is a need for one within the OMEGA to receive the help of another, be assured that that need will be made known to you. It may be a thought, a result of a spirit coming to you and advising you; but be aware that it is wise for you to seek through your guardian of spirit to confirm this to you if you are approached by one. Is there an additional question?

Then allow JEY to say this. You have received much information at this time, and it will be wise for you to spend time in discussing that which you have received. Be at peace. Know that you are in the will of the Creator, and remember that in the days to come you have much preparation that is to be done. Take that time that is needed to strengthen the spirit within in order that your own physical mind may be able to understand the needs during those times ahead. Be at peace and know you are in the love and care of those who are in your midst at this moment. Go in peace.
