

JANUARY 5, 1991 - OMEGA MEETING

Know this! As you are here gathered, this one is indeed in your midst. This one does not address from a distant place but rather meets with you at this time in this place in which you are gathered. YOU are SPIRIT! This one comes in SPIRIT to be with you in SPIRIT. Accept this and know that this one does indeed come in the will of the Creator and comes to address you and allow you to be aware of those Truths that are to be given to you at this time.

You come here in search of additional Truth. You have obtained much in the way of Truth in times past, but you are anxious to learn more in the way of Truth; and so this one comes knowledgeable that you are accepting and ready to accept.

This one comes to address, too, those who are not here in body with regard to that which is OMEGA. Allow your thoughts now to go out to ALL who are OMEGA and invite their spirit to meet with you at this time. It can be so. Even as YOU are Spirit, their spirit can indeed be here present to be part of this which is a meeting of the OMEGA. Believe this and know that it can be true.

And so as you gather as OMEGA, this one comes to address you with this information. As you are searching now for answers to many things that are of concern to you, this one would tell you that you need only to keep an open mind. Your physical self and mental self often tend to be a 'closed corporation'; in other words, that which you would consider complete in itself. This cannot be true if you are indeed a Seeker of Truth. You must allow your mental self to be open to receive Truth if you wish it to be so. Otherwise, those things of Truth which are presented to you in various forms tend not to be accepted by your mental self. Know that your spirit is well aware of the Truths that have been given to you; but simply because you are Spirit in Body those things must first be accepted by you as Mental Being. In other words, your mental self must be willing to accept. And so what is necessary is for you to allow your spirit, as you have so often been told, simply to be in control and to control your mental self, your physical self. And as you come into these meetings of the OMEGA, allow that to be your first order of business. Allow your spiritual self to be in complete control of that which is your mental and physical self. And so at this moment invite your spiritual self to be in control.

And now as you are aware that this is necessary at each of the meetings of the OMEGA, you will find that it will be a much easier task for you to accept the Truths that are brought to you. And so this one will continue.

As you are aware, you have been delving into those things that would give you information with regard to that which is past...in your own understanding. But be aware of this...You have been told that all is NOW. There is no PAST, there is no FUTURE. All is NOW. And so it is that this one will tell you again that this is Truth. And so those things which you are again researching and looking into will have meaning to you only insofar as you will accept them as being of the PRESENT. In other words, that which you will accept as having been a beginning of this which is life on Earth, beginning of this which is the Universe, will be of information to you and of interest to you only if you accept it as being NOW. In other words, if you accept that this which is your Universe, this which is ALL, inasmuch as Universe is ALL, is also present. Simply think of Universe as being the Present. You will better understand now the Being of You who are here because you are Universe, you are part of that which is ALL. You are a part of All that is. You have been told that the Creator is ALL that there is, because that which is the Creator is also Universe; that which is You is of the Creator and therefore is Universe.

That which is YOU is indeed important in the scheme of this Eternal Life that is known as Universe. If you can understand and accept this, there then will be no problem in accepting those things which you are attempting to understand at this time. The fact that you have delved into the secrets of this which is Spiritual Growth would tell you that you are learning things that are indeed of Eternal Value to the Spirit Within you; and as you allow your spirit to fully control your thinking, you will find that there is no misunderstanding of those things which you are attempting to understand at this time.

Be alert to those things which you seek to know as Truth. There are many things, perhaps, that are presented in written form that have been written by mankind and will not have a deep understanding with regard to what they write.

But know that as you allow your Spirit to guide you in your thinking, you will come to understand the Truth in all things that are presented. In other words, do not allow those things which are presented in writing to influence you in a way that will not be a positive aspect of your Spiritual Growth. Seek to know the will of God for your life at this moment; and if it is the will of God that you understand all that you SEEK to understand at this time, then it will be so.

You are indeed a creation of the Creator, and as a result of that you are OF the Creator. You have the ability to fully understand all that is to be known. If you will assert the power within you to understand that which must be so understood, it will be done because what is within you are the reality of you...that which is your Spirit...has the attributes of the Creator. You are able to create in your own thoughts. You are able to create those things that will be meaningful to you at this moment. And so as you think, you then create. This comes as no surprise to you, but this comes as Truth. Can you understand the power that is within you then with the knowledge that as you think, you then create? This is power. You have the ability then to create good or you have the ability to create evil. You have the ability within you to create that which is positive or the ability within you to create that which is negative. With this in your physical mind then, let it be understood that every thought that comes from you does create. And so as you are told then by those who come in Spirit that you can create peace on Earth through your thoughts, through that which goes forth as prayer, you can indeed create peace. But it must come as a real desire within your own being for peace. You cannot give simply lip service for peace. It must come as a real desire, regardless of the cost for peace. Are you willing at this moment to send forth from the center of your very being a desire for peace? If you are, know that those who are in Spirit can then take that desire and fully use it for peace on Earth.

Believe now that you are a spirit of great worth, that you are a spirit that can function as a creator. This is not what you would consider the creator of physical things on this Earth, but rather a creator of those things of spiritual value. And what is meant by things of spiritual value? Those things of spiritual value are the things that will uplift your very being until you can touch the heights of the Eternal. You are not to be alone in this. You are not to be alone in your ability to understand physically and mentally.

Know that when from the center of your very being you desire to send forth those thoughts that will uplift you spiritually, for those things of Eternal gain, you will receive the help of those who will come to you as Messengers of the Creator. And as you are aware then of this help which is available, there will be little effort on your part in achieving that which you so wish to achieve...and that is the Spiritual Growth that will lead you to Eternal Knowledge.

This one comes assisting you at this time in this realm of your thinking in order that you may send forth your thoughts in order that you may grow in Spirit for Eternal gain. You are here in the NOW even as you always have been. There is no PAST, there is no PRESENT, there is no FUTURE. Only the NOW. It will continue this way because when this day on Earth is done, what do you have? You still have the NOW only. That is all you have. You have only the NOW. And so there is no past, no future. You always have the now, and even as the Earth is evolving into a more spiritual aspect of the Universe, there is always only NOW. Internalize the meaning of this...there is always only NOW. And we who come to you in Spirit fully understand this...that you are here as a forceful being, as one of great power, seeking to do the will of the Creator in your life NOW. It shall be done, even as you seek for it to be done from the very Center of your Being. Allow it to be. You are indeed special in the sight of the one who is your Creator. You are indeed receiving much in the way of help from those who come to you. Accept this and know that you are a being of Light, even as the Creator is Light. Know that you are a being of Love, even as the Creator is Love. And you can send forth those positive thoughts throughout this Earth Plane as you accept that understanding. You are Light and you are Love.

Go in the peace that only this understanding can give, and know that all who are OMEGA will indeed benefit from this understanding. Be at Peace. Amen.
