

February 25, 1993 — Topic: Peace of Mankind

p. 1 of 1

JEY would at this time ask you to continue to be in prayer for those who are in need. Ask for those things of a specific nature as you pray. Know that it is important that you specify conditions of those for whom you pray. At this time allow JEY to tell that in the days to come there will be the opportunity for you to release the property which you now occupy. Know that there will be one who will seek the property. Be at peace with that. And now JEY would ask that you be particularly concerned with the acquisition of property that will be suitable to your need for solitude. It is important that you be very careful with such property purchasing. JEY will attempt to help in your decision, and will seek to determine the desirability of the property. At this time allow JEY to give an opportunity for the one who is John to again communicate. Be at peace and know that one comes in the will of the Creator. Wait now.

JOHN is at this time here to communicate, with the knowledge that we can continue with our dialogue that will culminate in the preparation of a book. At this time know that JOHN has been aware of the stress under which you have lived for the days past; but know that you have not been alone. And allow John to say that the one who is Alma will indeed overcome the disease that has again intruded her body. Be at Peace. John comes with the realization that there is much at this time that involves those with whom you are concerned; but know that as you are in prayer, those prayers are heard and will be considered by the Creator. Be at peace and allow John now to communicate .

As John has contributed in the past, there is an opportunity for many to experience the knowledge which you have been able to receive through the written word. As you prepare for the publications to be disseminated, know that there are opportunities which present themselves to you that will enable you to send forth those things that will enable others to learn and understand things of a spiritual Truth; and so John would at this time ask that you be immersed in the idea that there is indeed Truth and that it must be shared. And so John would at this time continue with a topic of great value.

As the Earth is again experiencing unrest in many areas, know that there is appearing on the surface of the Earth much in the way of Spiritual Energy that will affect all those areas that are so involved. In other words, the Spiritual Energy that is being shared throughout the Earth will affect the decisions of those who attempt to continue to fan the waves of hatred. And so John would ask that you continue in prayer for the peace of mankind on Earth.

At this time there would also appear to be a need for the country in which you live, inasmuch as there is much unrest and violence that can affect the future of the country. What John would ask at this time is for you to first be in prayer for the country and then for you to attempt to influence those who are in charge of the country through a writing campaign. In other words, those who lead the country must hear from those who are subjects of the rulers. If this is not done, there will become an oppression that will not be shaken away in your lifetime. Often those who seek after leadership in a country become too burdened with the desire to look and act important before their fellow human beings; and so it is at this time that you have in power many who have not been fully seasoned in the area of government who would appear to have all the answers but who are not fully cognizant of the needs and ways of obtaining those needs. And so John would ask that you be in a time of writing to those who represent you in the government. It is important. What is taking place at this time is the rape of a nation. In other words, many are being used to satisfy the emerging desires of those who would be rulers without adequate understanding of that which is the country as a whole.

And so John would ask that you support those who seek to do that which appears to be the right way for mankind to go at this time.

When John returns to communicate with you each time, John is fully aware of the need to give you Spiritual Energy. It is known that your body tires and you have little energy to await the entire communication. John would ask that you be open to communicating in the day to come. Be at peace and know that John does have an opportunity to help. Go in peace.
