

April 2, 1993

JEY: Your thoughts are heard. Know that as a result of this day, you have reached an arrangement that will be suitable for obtaining a home; but know that there will be an opportunity to serve the will of God for your life as you work with others in the sale of the home. Be at peace with that and know that JEY will continue to be with you as you complete the transaction.

JEY is aware of that, of course. (I had thought about the message I had gotten through thought process, that I would receive information about the house sale on April 1!) You are capable of so doing, and it shall continue to be so, that you will receive information through thought. Be receptive and acquiesce when you receive such information. JEY would ask that you continue to give thanks for such ability for it is known that it has been received as a result of God's will for your life. And as you continue to seek for Truth, it will become more forceful for you and will prove to be of benefit when there is the need for it to be so. At this time now allow JEY to clear the way for the one who is JOHN to communicate. Be at peace and go in love.

JOHN is here and would ask that you give thanks for the sale of the property. Know that JOHN has been attempting through efforts available to this one to help. JOHN hears. Be at peace. Know that has attempted to help and will continue to do so. What remains now is for those who seek to buy the property to have available to them the finances to purchase and that too will come. Simply be patient and know that indeed the will of the Creator is being fulfilled for your life. The home that you seek to purchase will provide solitude that is needed and will be a home of much love for you. Know that it is God's will for you to be able to provide a loving environment for those who will come to you. Be at peace and give thanks always. Now JOHN would ask that you attempt to receive another topic of concern to JOHN. Be at peace.

At this time JOHN wishes to discuss a topic of importance to many who are seekers of Truth, beyond that which they receive in institutions of religion. And so JOHN would address the topic of peace within.

At first thought this may not seem like a subject about which many things can be expressed; but know that it is of supreme importance to the Spirit-in-Body as one lives on the Earth and attempts to seek and to find the will of the Creator for their lives.

As you are aware, there is much on the Earth plane that would distract one who seeks for something more than the day-to-day things that confront his or her life. In other words, the work, the entertainment, the myriad of distractions that invade life. . .all these things fill a life but do not totally satisfy. Many are living now as Spirit-in-body who feel a void in their lives and so they are seeking to fill that void with artificial stimulants. In other words, through that which is chemical substances such as the alcohol and drugs that are so prevalent. What these provide is simply an escape from the daily routines that prove to be insufficient to provide a life of value.

Mankind is seeking after something that would provide inner serenity. . .and the only source for such is the spiritual aspect that can provide a reality for one's life. It is only through this avenue that one can come to know the inner peace that will bring total satisfaction to a life that is in other ways totally unsatisfactory.

Many who are Spirit-in-body attempt to fill their lives with an excess of activity that provide little satisfaction, and often times they seek to aggrandize self through such avenues. But know that all of the accolades that mankind can receive through such activities do not fulfill the needs for peace within.

What JOHN wishes to provide at this time is an element of information that will encourage those who are seeking after peace to provide an impetus to allow the Spirit-Within to guide them in the daily journey in order to begin to realize the value of such peace.

JOHN is, of course, a prime example of one who has returned to Spirit after having lived a lifetime filled with total activity, often leading not to satisfaction and peace but rather to disappointment and disillusionment. As JOHN has told, one becomes painfully aware of those negative things that have occurred in life once the Spirit has made the transition to the Spirit Realm. What JOHN first noted was this. . .that in reviewing activities of the Earth life, It was seen that very little of the frenetic activity with which John filled his life bore any fruit with regard to Spirit. And it can be told that It was only when John began the search for Truth that John began to realize the value of life and of peace within. JOHN can say at this time, as Spirit, that had it not been for the opportunity to seek for Peace and Truth, the one who was Spirit-in-body as John could not have coped with the many illnesses that befell the body.

And so It is important that as you and others who are OMEGA seek to become more and more knowledgeable with regard to Truth that you must allow the Spirit Within to be the guiding force. It through that portion of your existence on Earth that you will be lead to seek and find the Peace that will bring total satisfaction to you as you live as Spirit-in-body.

JOHN comes also to say this. . .that in the days ahead you will have the experience of again changing directions in your life as you prepare once again to change location for the purpose of living on Earth. You will find that there will be lifted from you much In the way of responsibility and you will be freed then to pursue the activity that will result in the writing of the material that will become a book. It is known to JOHN that even as you have been receptive to the message from Spirit with regard . to the sale of the home, so you will become receptive to ideas that will be filtered through your mental self for the content of the book. be at peace with this and know that you will receive the help that is needed.

At this time now JOHN would ask that you continue to provide those who are OMEGA with information; and as the time draws near for you to change location, it will be made known to you that there will be many who have benefited from the Truths that have been shared by JOHN. It will also be made known to those who have been allowed to learn of the source of such information will begin once again to seek to communicate with you. be at peace and know that as an Instrument for the Creator, you have proven your dedication and reliability; and those of us who are in Spirit give you thanks for the opportunity to provide help for many on the Earth Plane. Go now in Love and know that JOHN remains in your life. be at peace.

JEY is here. Know that JEY will continue in your life, and that is especially true at this time when you will be facing the many responsibilities that come with moving to a new home. be at peace and know that there will be many in Spirit who will be in your presence to help. Go now in Love and know that JEY remains in your life. Be at peace.

Amen .
