

August 8, 1996

JEY is here. JEY is now at the time where we may be able to communicate with you. Know that as JEY is here, there are others who are in your presence as well. Accept this and know it is indeed the will of the Creator that we be with you at this time.

JEY would ask that each of you simply allow your heart and your mind to be open to that which is to be given to you. At this time JEY and those of us who are Spirit in the Spirit Realm would tell you that we rejoice in that which is the gathering at this time, for there have been brought together many of you who have been in a time of seeking and who have been in a time of receiving and accepting that which is Truth; and so we come and rejoice with you at this time. Let it be known to you that as each of you have come here, as it has often been said to you "You are here for a purpose," and so JEY comes to give thanks for that and to give thanks for your presence, and to allow another to come to communicate with you.

Know that as JEY allows others who are in Spirit to communicate through the voice of this one who serves as instrument for this which is the OMEGA, know that JEY does allow this to be so only because it is the will of the Creator that it is to be so. And so as JEY comes and allows another to use the voice of Louise, that that you need not be concerned, for indeed JEY is always much aware of the necessity to protect the Spirit of this one. And so you must understand that there is nothing for you to fear. Simply allow that which is the Spirit Within you to come forward and to be able to tell you the Truth of that which can be given to you at this time.

As JEY has said many times in the past, it is not necessary always for you to simply receive all that is said to you and accept it as Truth! Know that there are many times those things said that your own physical and mental self does not feel willing to accept at that time. But as you allow those things simply to remain in your thoughts, and allow your Spirit within you to deal more forcefully with that which is your mental self, you will be led to know the Truth of those things that are said to you. And so again, JEY would say to you that we who come in Spirit do not come to force you to accept those things that are given to you. We simply allow them to be spoken and in turn it is your will as to whether or not you will accept what is said.

And so with that said, JEY would allow at this time another to come to you; and JEY will assure you that this one does come in the will of the Creator, and would ask only that you would open your heart and your mind to that one who will be here. Be at Peace.

BE AT PEACE AT THIS TIME AND KNOW THAT AS THIS ONE COMES, IT IS WITH MUCH LOVE FOR EACH OF YOU. And even as this one has come in times past and communicated with you, it is for the purpose of bringing not only that which is Truth to you but also to share with you the Love which this one can feel so completely for you.

There are those of you who are here at this time who are new to this which is OMEGA and which of course would mean to you that you may not have been able to receive information that has been spoken from this Spirit through the voice of the one who is instrument. And so this one comes much at peace at this time to assure you that this one does come in the will of the Creator and does come to bring you Truth as well as that which is Love. So open your hearts and your minds, as JEY has asked you, and allow this one now to simply identify to you as that which is Spirit, and that which was SPIRIT OF THE ONE WHO LIVED DURING THE LIFETIME OF JESUS...AND THIS ONE WILL IDENTIFY TO YOU AS SPIRIT OF THE ONE WHO WAS MARY.

You must understand that this one has communicated in the times past with many of you who are here; but it is necessary for those of you who have not been a recipient of messages from the one who comes as the Spirit of MARY for you to know that this one does come to your midst to share that which is Truth. Even as those of you who are gathered here as Spirit-in-Body do so because your Spirit has led you, so that it is that those of us who are in the Spirit Realm are led to be with you because it is the responsibility that we have to come to share Truth with you and to share that which is knowledge with you. And so this one who comes as Spirit is well aware now that there are those of you who are here that do need additional information that has been given to others that have been here. And so this one would say, "Fear not! You have not been forgotten." But know that that which was the responsibility of the one who was WATERSON was completed, and it is now time for this one to come to share with you information that will help you to know more about your own being during this lifetime of the one who was Jesus on Earth.

As this one comes, understand...as has been said before by this one...that the one who was known as Mary upon Earth is not to be one who is to be worshipped or revered upon Earth. Simply know that the Spirit that was in that one came to Earth to fulfill a need at that time. And that which was the body of the one who was Mary simply served as an instrument for the fulfillment of that which was the need of the Spirit. And so as this one comes and identifies as the SPIRIT of the one who was MARY, know that it simply was that.

And so this Spirit comes to tell you that the one who was WATERSON came to you, you must understand that the Spirit who spoke as WATERSON was also the Spirit who can now speak to you as Mary. Accept that! This one comes to tell you this because it is lesson in that which would be the lives of many who lived upon the Earth. And so even as this one who comes as the Spirit of the one who was Mary now can talk to you in terms of that which was the lifetime of Mary, know that the one who came in Spirit as WATERSON was also one who was Spirit in the body of Mary and also could recall, because of that, those things that were known during that lifetime of Jesus.

This may seem to be a complex situation to you; but know that even as that is Truth, the Spirit which is within you has imprinted upon it many lifetimes that you have lived in the past. And any one of those lifetimes can be called forth from that Spirit Within you, with the knowledge of all that has taken place in the eons before for that Spirit. This indeed comes as a lesson for you and know that it may be beyond that which you are willing to accept at this time. Simply accept that this one who comes as the Spirit of the one who was Mary, also existed as Spirit of the one who was WATERSON. And so this one who comes as Spirit now to talk to you, of the one who was Mary, does come to you with those things which were imprinted at that time of the one who was Mary lived, and therefore can address those of you who are here at this time in need of information about their lifetime during that period of time.

And so as this one comes as Spirit and is aware of those of you who are yet to receive information, know that this one is willing to share with you and so will address the one who is here as NANCY.

It is the will of the Creator at this time that you know something about that which was your life during that lifetime. Understand that even as you now are very open to things of Spirit and very open to those things that can be given to you as gifts upon the Earth at this time, know that you who have been given a gift of healing upon the Earth had that opportunity during the lifetime of the one who was Jesus. You indeed served as one who was a healer during that time; and if you could look with the Spirit Within you, you would rejoice at those you were able to help during that period of time. You will be given an opportunity to see the likeness which you bore at the time when the portraits are completed; and know that you will be included in those portraits.

This one would now come to address the one who is JUDY and would say to you that as you are here at this time, you are much aware that you have been drawn to be here; and so it is that as you gather with others who are of a like mind at this time, this one has come to share with you that which is Truth and which is joy. And that is that we you lived during that lifetime of Jesus, know that you were one who grieved heavily at that which was the crucifixion of the one who was Jesus. You must understand that there were many who knew that one and knew of His love and knew of the Truth that he taught. But you must know that there were not many who gathered to grieve at that time of his passing. And so it is that you were one who was there and within the proximity of the cross upon his body died. And you will be given an opportunity in the time to come to know about your identification. Accept that.

And so at this time this one would come to address one who is here and has been much interested in learning more about this group which is called OMEGA. And that one is known by the name of BETTY.

As you have gathered here, you have been able to share with those who are here at this time much of the Truths which you have learned from the one who you refer to as Cayce. Know that you have been able to bring with you much knowledge that others who are here have accepted; and yet they were aware of the many things of which you spoke. At this time now be aware that this one wishes to say to you that you have a great belief in that which is past life at this time, and that you are not at all surprised that you are finding at this time that you lived during the lifetime of Jesus. Be aware that you do indeed bring with you a knowledge and that you were a follower after that one who was on Earth in the body of Jesus... that the Christ Spirit did indeed embody that which was the body of Jesus. And you must understand that even at that time, your Spirit was so aware of that which was the Christ Spirit that you were drawn to follow after the one who was known on Earth as Jesus during those teaching years which he shared upon the Earth with others. You must understand that even as you were drawn to that one, you were able to fully understand the teachings. You were not female during that time, you were indeed in body as a male, and there were many who were drawn to him and were able to follow after that one. It is not that you were a disciple or one of those chosen few who he gathered around him; but be of the knowledge that there were many who have not been named in that which you would call your Scripture. And those who were not named were vitally important as well in that which you know as the Scripture of those who call themselves Christian. And so you will learn more about that which is your identity at that time as well.

And now this one would address the one who is here and known as BILL, and allow you to know that we in the Spirit Realm rejoice at your presence with this which is OMEGA, for you will become one of much strength for others who are OMEGA upon the Earth. You have the ability, you have the knowledge; and you now have been given that which is an understanding of your true purpose upon the Earth at this time. And so this one would say to you that even as you are here now as a strengthening entity for those who will be in need during that time for which you are here upon the Earth, know that as even the one who lived as Jesus was upon the Earth, you were there encouraging even the one who lived in body as Jesus.

You must understand that you were one of great strength at that time and you encouraged that one to move forward with those teachings that he was to be given during the time when he embodied the Christ Spirit. And so even as the one who was Jesus traveled beyond the land in which he lived, know that you were one who was able to accompany him during those times of travel. It is important that you accept this, for you were there to strengthen him and to encourage him as he traveled. And yet, you were not known in that which is printed as your Scripture upon the Earth.

Do not be afraid to accept these things which this one has given to you; and know that as the one who was MARY upon the Earth was the one who gave birth to the body that was named JESUS, know that this one is very well aware of those things that did have an impact, and those who had an impact, upon the life of that one who lived as a man upon the Earth. And know that as the Christ Spirit entered into that body and was able to spread those messages that were so given in that short term in which the one who was Jesus embodied the Christ Spirit, know that indeed those things that were taught have been given to mankind to share throughout the many, many years since that time. And yet, understand that even as all of you who are here at this time are learning Truth, you can be aware that the Truth that comes through Spirit is indeed Truth. It has not been diluted by that which has been the thinking of mankind down through the many centuries, and changed many times. Know that the simple Truth that Jesus brought to the Earth during that which was the embodiment of the Christ Spirit was that indeed there is a Creator of us all, that indeed there is a Christ Spirit, and that indeed all who live in body are Spirits of the Creator; and that indeed as you have been told, LOVE is the most important thing that you can learn in this journey upon the Earth. And know that as you can love and experience the joy of loving, you will indeed experience that which is the UNCONDITIONAL LOVE of the one who is the Creator of us all.

And so as this one comes, it is a time of rejoicing for this one has been able to share with you much in the way of knowledge that you can accept as Truth. And this one would give thanks to the voice that has been used, and it is known that voice is at this time feeling that which is a strain upon it; but know that this one has not meant for that to occur. Be not concerned about the voice; it is simply of the physical body and those of you who are in the presence of each other here need have no concern for this one who serves as the voice.

Know that this one comes in Love and would ask each of you to share that Love not only with others who are here at this time but all others who are known to you upon this Earth. It is through that Love that you will show the true greatness of the one who is the Creator of us all. It is through Love that all can be changed. Go now in Peace.

JEY returns at this time and would ask you to be at Peace with what you have received. Of course, there has been given information that you may need to hold within your heart at this time and may need to share in discussion with others who are here. But know that JEY has indeed allowed the one to come who was the Spirit of the one who was Mary; and it is because JEY is the Gatekeeper for OMEGA and does come as Guardian of Spirit for the one who is here as Louise that JEY has the responsibility to protect those who are OMEGA and certainly this one who serves as the instrument for this voice at this time. Know that JEY comes to you now to affirm that what you have received is Truth. Be at Peace. Know that JEY is here and remains in your midst, and wishes to share with you Love as you allow this one to remain your midst. Be at Peace. Know that there will be additional information in the meeting to come, and we give thanks for that. Go now in Love. AMEN

End of Contact

The following information is from the ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA AND IS INCLUDED BECAUSE OF MY CURIOSITY REGARDING HOW THE ORIGINAL TEACHINGS OF THE CHRIST SPIRIT, THROUGH JESUS, HAVE BEEN ‘DILUTED’AS THE SPIRIT OF MARY NOTED.

The first 500 years, beginning with AD 1, represents a period that began with the appearance of Jesus and ended with the establishment of Christianity as the state religion of the Roman Empire. In that period of time, there began the establishment of ‘canons’, a body of rules or laws enacted by a church council, and in the Roman Church ratified by a Pope. Most fixed canons are those that have been defined by official religious bodies. For example:

1. Jewish – Old Testament – Fixed by a synod of rabbis held at Yevneh, Palestine about AD 90. Books that were excluded were labeled the apocrypha (hidden away) by Christians. Roman Catholics later included them in their canon.
2. Jesus – founder of what later became Christianity – left nothing in writing – inspired his followers who preserved his sayings and biographical details in oral form until they were written in the four gospels. To these were added the letters of Paul and others; Revelation by John. All formed a sacred canon called the New Testament which was ecclesiastically sanctioned by the end of the 4th Century AD. There was also a New Testament Apocrypha but it did not achieve canonical status.
3. Muslims believe that the Koran (Quran) is composed of the very words of God communicated to Mohammed and recited by him without addition or subtraction. The faith of Muslims in the Koran is similar to that of fundamentalist Christians who believe that the Bible, as God’s word, is verbally inspired from beginning to end.

The canon of the Holy Scripture was proclaimed officially by Pope Damaecus I in 382 AD; by Pope Gelaseus I in 496 and by Pope Hormeadas in 520 AD.

In addition to the primary canons, there is secondary literature with semi-canonical authority:

1. Talmud (Jewish)
2. Apostles Creed (by Papal decree)
Ecumenical Creeds: Nicea (325 AD), Constantinople (381 AD), Chalcedon Creed (451 AD)
3. The Roman Catholic Church added to these decrees the conclusions of councils regarding sacraments, which are: transubstantiation (wine and bread are changed to body and blood of Christ), confession, Immaculate Conception, Papal infallibility, assumption of body and soul of Mary to Heaven.
4. Protestant binding to statements of faith: Augsburg confession (1530), Heidelberg Catechism (1563), Westminster Confession (1646), Shorter Westminster Catechism (1647) and others.

During the last 7 centuries in the West, some writings have attained a semi-sacred status: Imitation of Christ by Thomas Kempis, Pilgrim's Progress by John Bunyan, Science and Health by Mary Baker Eddy, Book of Mormon by Joseph Smith.

The Nicene Creed was formulated at the first ecumenical council of Nicea which was called by Roman Emperor Constantine in AD 325 and the decisions of council and of the church fathers were put on a level of authority only after the Old and New Testaments for the interpretation of law and doctrine.

The Roman Canon of the Old Testament differed from the Jewish, as does the Greek canon. Protestants later returned to the Jewish Canon. Council of Trent later reaffirmed a longer canon for Roman Catholics.

The concept of Christianity, which denotes what is meant by 'essence' or real meaning, does not appear in New Testament writing. Not until thinkers of the first and second centuries was the term Christianity used as a parallel to the concept Judaism. The term Christianity was first used in such a manner by Ignatius Bishop of Antioch who died about AD 110. Other early writers were Justin Martyr (mid 2nd Century); Clement of Alexandria (late 2nd Century); Eusebius (early 4th Century), Gallic monk Vincent Lerina (5th Century) who defined Christian faith as "what has been believed everywhere, always, and by all."

(Not mentioned as an early writer was Origen, who lived probably in the 2nd Century and whose writings were denounced by Demetrius (Bishop of Alexandria). He was later imprisoned and tortured by Decius the emperor, and died in prison. His teachings had not been in keeping with the 'church' and 'state'.)

Throughout the centuries there has been censorship and changes. Three large volumes entitled Collection of Judgments which have been proscribed and noted in the Church from the Beginning of the 12th Century after the Incarnation of the Word to the year 1632 were written about the Middle Ages. During the 17th and 18th Centuries the Roman Catholic Church denounced the doctrine of the Protestant Reformation, which held that the essence of Christianity was 'pure teaching'. During the 19th and 20th Centuries there was still more censorship. Palolo Sarpi wrote a History of the Council of Trent which contains more about censorship and change.

Later development of doctrines were along the lines of 'true and false' which led to a philosophical/theological movement that attempted to balance reason and revelation. At this point the unity of life and teaching of Christianity was torn asunder and followed by intellectualization of Christianity. Thus followed formulations of different confessions of faith.

Johann Salomo Semler (18th Century German historian and theologian) made a distinction between private and public religion. Private included spiritual, religious and moral life of an individual as distinguished from theological dogmatic definition of legally valid church creeds. He held that the essence of Christianity is in the area of private religion.

During the 20th Century, the Christian message of the Kingdom of God was reduced more and more to a social-ethical and social-utopia content.

Add to this the effect that epics, myths, legends, allegories and folk tales have on our spiritual understanding: stories of origin of the world and man's life in it in Greek and Roman beliefs and rituals; Egyptian and Mesopotamia lives; the beliefs of ancient Germans, Slavs, Celts and Scandinavians; and those of India and the Far East.
