JEY does come at this time to communicate with those of you who are here, for as you have been in a time of discussion there have been many things discussed that perhaps JEY can help to clarify. But know that even as you are in a time of discussion, that which is your Spirit Within is urging you on to simply be questioning about those things which have come into your thoughts. This is good, for indeed it is through such that you will then be able to hone your understanding to a finer degree in order that you may be an instrument of great worth upon the Earth. . .when the time is there for you to need a greater knowledge with a clear understanding. As JEY is well aware, there is a possibility that each of you will have the opportunity to work with others who are OMEGA in helping them to further understand that about which they are not having a clear thought. Give of self when it is necessary in order to help another who is OMEGA.

So JEY comes at this time to simply address that which will be an overview about those things which you have been discussing. You have been in a time of attempting to understand what you would call the positive and negative aspects of life upon the Earth, and how you will deal with those. . .not only in this lifetime but in that which is to come. You have been in a time of seeking to understand that which is given in your scriptures as those who you would choose to call "fallen angels." Allow JEY to express this in regard to those things.

As you are aware, you have often used the term karma in your discussions; but know that is a word that does not fully explain what you are seeking at this time. What you are seeking to know is this: Do those things of a negative import which occur in your lifetime upon the Earth have an impact on your Spirit as you again enter into the Realm of Spirit? JEY would say this in that regard. Know that all lives, as Spirit in Body, do have an impact with regard to those things that are negative while living upon the Earth. Those who arrive upon the Earth to inhabit a body. . .those Spirits that come to inhabit a body. . .are well aware that there will be those negative things that will affect the human body upon the Earth. That is understood! The Spirit is here to learn; the Spirit is here for experience. And so as your Spirit returns to the Spirit Realm, it will review all that occurred during the lifetime upon the Earth. There will be some Spirits who will have had such a negative life upon the Earth that it will take some re-learning in the Spirit Realm for them to be ready once again to enter into that which is again a life upon the Earth Plane. That is understood by those of us who are in the Spirit Realm! But know that as you have been in a time of discussing whether or not that which is your mental self. . .your physical self. . .will have such an impact on the Spirit that indeed that Spirit will have to overcome every aspect of a negative import. Know that this is not the case. As you are at this time attempting to become more fully aware of your understanding of things of a Spiritual Nature with regard to your mental aspect, know that JEY will say this to you. . .As you seek upon the Earth to seek to live a life where you will be able to understand that which is a knowledge of the Creator of All Things. . .as you attempt to Love and Serve that One who can give you unconditional Love. . .know that is what is important for you. You will be able to fulfill that which is a life upon the Earth through your service to others. And so as you LOVE and SERVE the One who is the Creator of All Things...and as you attempt to live a life of service to those who come to you...those who become a part of your life upon the Earth. . .as you are of service to them, and as you can share the Unconditional Love of our Creator with those who come into your life, know that you are doing what you came to do.

You each have arrived at this time with a mission that is totally understood by you, and was understood by you while yet in the Spirit Realm. You came for a purpose at this time. . .and that was to be here to help others during a time of great trial for many upon the Earth Plane. This did indeed give you a heavy burden as Spirit, and that is why those of us who are in Spirit have chosen to help you through this life upon the Earth.

Let this be said to you! Since you have been given much, much is expected of you. You have been carefully led, yes, as has been said; but in that leading of you, in this directing of you toward a deeper Spiritual Awareness, it was to prepare you for the time that was ahead. Thus, you have incurred a responsibility that will take all of your energy to fulfill. And so we have given you the blessings that you need, we have given you the Spiritual study and understanding that you need, and we now are ready to allow you to move on your own. You would liken this much to an infant who first was taught and allowed to crawl, then taught and allowed to walk, and then suddenly it became that which is an adult which must be on Its own. You have now passed through those early stages. You are now an adult in Spiritual Understanding and you are now on your own. It is NOT that we are unfeeling toward you; but it is that we have given you the lessons that have helped you to become strengthened in Spirit. And so from this time forth, exercise that Spiritual Knowledge that you have. Exercise that strength of Spirit that you have. Let nothing stand in your way to serving as you came to serve upon the Earth Plane.

And when the time comes when you will be of great assistance to many upon the Earth, know that not only will you be able to do so, but you will have the help of those of us who are in the Spirit Realm. Simply rejoice about that, for it is important that you internalize this Truth: not only are you prepared, but you will be given assistance. There is nothing to fear. You must not fall victim to fear during this lifetime upon the Earth. Simply be at Peace and know you can indeed control those things that are in your future to the extent that you can fulfill your purpose.

As you have had the opportunity to discuss that which you choose to call “fallen angels,” allow this to be known. Those things that are written in scripture are often written to paint a picture. In other words, they are symbolic in many ways. And those who have written such did indeed write then from the viewpoint of seeking to allow others to understand as they understood. This is important for you to know, for you to be willing to accept. And so as one is led to talk about those “fallen angels” as you understand them to be, you must know that all are creations of the Eternal Spirit, the Creator of All Things; and you have been told that as a result of that, that you and those who Spirit as well have freedom of choice. Those who did indeed choose to make a decision will in some way revert then to being able to accept only that which is the will of the Creator. THIS MUST BE! And so it will be with all who are Spirit and all who are Spirit-in-Body. So it shall be! This does not mean that those who make the wrong choices in life upon the Earth and do those things that are critical to the welfare of others in a negative sense will not in some way have to make amends for those things. And oftentimes they have to do this through returning to life in body time after time in order to become a more spiritual entity while in body.

It is important that you realize that the sins of the body are not the sins of the Spirit. Although the Spirit inhabits the body, the body in the “sinful” things as you would wish to call it. . .but in other words, the “negative” things we would say. . .the body makes the negative decisions. The Spirit will be impacted inasmuch as it will not be able to achieve all it had hoped to achieve while in body on the Earth. You are well aware that those physical aspects and mental aspects of you do indeed pay a heavy price for the negative things which they do upon the Earth. It is important that you understand that the negative things that the body does accomplish upon the Earth will have an impact on the Spirit only insofar as that Spirit will indeed require some learning, some healing, and it must return to the Earth Plane or some other area, over and over again until such time as it has become Spiritually advanced. This indeed would accomplish what is necessary in order for all Spirits to once again return to that which is the Creator of All Things.

JEY would ask you to be at Peace with this and to know that as you seek for deeper knowledge, you will find it. It is simply that you must allow your heart and your mind to be open to Spirit in order for you to fully understand all things that are advanced toward you and your search for knowledge. JEY would ask you to be at Peace. Know that JEY will remain with you, does come in Love to you, and does come wishing and praying to our Creator that you will be so firmly advanced in your Spiritual Understanding that there will be no question but that you will be able to return to the Spirit Realm rejoicing, as it has said you will do. So JEY comes at this time asking you to ace. Peace is important in your life. Be at Peace and Go in Love, for indeed Love is the important aspect a our life upon the Earth. You are Loved; you are of the Creator. Go now in Love. Be at Peace. AMEN.
