JEY is here. JEY comes at this time and is aware that each of you who are here have indeed gained something from this time of meeting. Know that JEY comes only for one reason and that is to reinforce those Truths that you have exhibited during this time of meeting. In other words, you have given voice to thoughts and to perspectives, and know that JEY simply comes to reinforce.

JEY is here at this time and is aware of your discussion with regard to that which would be understandings from what you call your Scriptures. Know that you need to be aware that all that has been said and written in times past do have some meaning for you in this time upon the Earth. But know that as you have now learned Truth from those of us who are in the Spirit Realm, it is wise for you to weigh what has been given to you through that which you call your Scriptures with what you have been learning now as Truth from those Teachers and Messengers who have come to you, and have indeed come in the will of the Creator and have come with Truth. And yet, you must understand that those teachings that you have been given in what you call your Scriptures have indeed had an impact on your life. They have led you to seek after additional understanding of things of Spirit; and so it is that they have led you to where you are at this time.

What you have received as Truth from those who have come to you from Spirit have indeed simply reinforced, have given you a broader view, have helped you to understanding your relationship to that which is the Universe in a much deeper sense. And so JEY would simply remind you that nothing has been lost but much has been gained in your Spiritual Journey.

JEY also would allow you to know at this time that as you have discussed those things that have impact with regard to that which lies ahead for you know that you have been adequately prepared Spiritually, and now you are working on the emotional aspect and the physical aspect. JEY would advise you that the time is near. You do not have much time to more fully prepare. And so each day must be spent in a mode of preparation for those things that are necessary for you simply to survive. That is important for you. It is important for you to allow your loved ones to know this as well.

And so at this time JEY would suggest to you that you have an opportunity each day to simply plant a seed with regard to such preparation among others who come Into your path each day. Make that an opportunity that you will take advantage of. It will indeed help you in your work as the time comes. The more you are prepared for that time ahead, the less will be the burden that you must bear. And so as you now sense the need for preparation and the need for others to be prepared, you are indeed fulfilling your journey at this time. And so as you allow others to be aware that there is a purpose in preparing for those things that can be called disasters upon the Earth, you must be aware that as they are becoming aware of your concern, they too are picking up the mantle that you now wear; and they are beginning now to assert their own responsibility upon the Earth. And so your efforts are not lost. They are indeed bearing fruit. As each one then becomes aware, they in turn help another.

You have been amazed at the amount of information that is coming forth in printed forms upon the Earth. It is indeed because seeds have been planted and are bearing fruit. And as such printed material reaches that which is the knowledge of others upon the Earth, they in turn begin to assert a responsibility to allow others to know.

JEY comes at this time to give thanks that the knowledge that you have has now spread beyond the area in which you live. That is how it should be! And how it was to be! You have not needed to go out and 'make a joyful noise' to everyone, but rather it has come through a very quiet sharing that you have done. Be aware that of course it is not wrong to make the 'joyful noise' but what would have been the result would have been many who would have doubted you at that time. And so through your quiet manner you have been able to spread the knowledge, to spread the Truth.

Even at the time when you are to meet the challenges of the Earth Changes, your quiet manner, your demeanor, will have an impact upon others who come into your presence. We give thanks for that, for you are indeed fulfilling the role for which you came to Earth at this time.

JEY would ask you to bear this in mind as well. As you are now preparing to more fully support self and others In your life during the time of Earth changes, be aware that it is Important that you are fully aware that you are emotionally involved in all that is taking place.. .and this is a positive emotional involvement! It is well to say that 'yes, I know that I am ready', and yet it has been said to you before that there will be many things that will simply shake the foundations of your preparation as you must face them emotionally upon the Earth. Be prepared for the great damage that has to be done as a result of the Earth changes throughout the world that you know. They will be extensive. You must be aware of that. And yet you, in your area, will find very little with regard to that which is damage as compared to other parts of this Earth on which you live. Be prepared to accept that many will indeed find it necessary to forego further life upon the Earth. Many will pass from this life as Spirit in Body in great terror, great fear. It will be necessary for those in the Spirit Realm to deal with those who arrive so suddenly and unexpectedly. And so we who are in Spirit would ask your prayers for all who must leave the Earth body at that time. Your prayers will have great impact, even at this time, upon many who are searching now for Truth and not being able to find it.. .and yet will leave this Earth not knowing the Truth that they sought for.

It is important that you be alert to the needs of all upon the Earth at this time. Worry not about what is occurring with them, but rather send forth your prayer in a positive manner that they will be helped in whatever situation they find themselves in at that time. There is much of a negative nature taking place upon the Earth, and it is important that a positive aspect be given to those things of a negative nature.

JEY would suggest to you, too, that you be content at this time with where you are and what you are doing. There is much thought being given by many upon the Earth about realigning themselves with new areas upon the Earth. That is not what is necessary at this time. Where you are at this time is where your life has led you to be; and this is part of your journey upon the Earth. You are Spiritually endowed with the ability now to know that where you are is where you are supposed to be. Look upon that as a blessing. Be content with WHO you are. The Creator has not asked you to be a super being but rather to be one of a Spiritual nature that can help others who are also his Spirits.. .to have a peace that they may not know otherwise.

We who are in the Spirit Realm look upon this time upon the Earth as a time of what you may perhaps think of as simply treading water. You are familiar with that term. JEY is aware of that. You simply are attempting to keep your head above all that is happening by spending your time, using your energy to keep ahead of all that you know to be so at this time upon the Earth. You can picture such as one who is in water, is attempting to remain alive, with head above water by that which you would call treading water. You who are in this holding position at this time are attempting to be Spiritually alert, emotionally mature, physically strong by simply 'treading water'. You are waiting for that which is ahead. JEY paints this picture because it is one you will understand. And so JEY comes once again to remind you that you are now ready to begin that which is a very critical and crucial aspect of your life upon the Earth. Do not fear, but know that we who are in Spirit will be with you and will help you in the days to come. Know that your prayers which are sent forth will help not only those who are Spirit in Body upon the Earth, but they will help those of us who are in the Spirit Realm as well. We cherish your prayers, even as do those who are Spirit in Body.

Be at Peace. Know that JEY remains in your love and in your care. Go now in Love. AMEN.
