PEACE BE WITH YOU! At this time allow JEY to come to communicate. It is important that you who are here have been here for you have opened your hearts to that which has been a re-tuning of your Spiritual Growth. You are now endowed with that which is complete purpose in your life, the purpose of forging ahead to complete that which has been assigned to your life upon this Earth. It is important that you accept now that you have been here on this Earth to fulfill a purpose, to fulfill a destiny that has been given to you throughout many lifetimes upon the Earth. JEY would come at this time to give thanks to our Creator for the knowledge that you have expressed in this time and would ask that you simply give thanks as well, for you have been blessed during this time of meeting. JEY is much aware that those of you who were with the beginning of this which has been OMEGA were indeed present here at this time. Those who were present at the early beginning and who are now in the Spirit Realm rejoice with JEY at this time that your footsteps now have brought you together, that you have been able to share once again and that you have been able to share with others. Be at Peace with the progress that each of you has made in this lifetime. Be at Peace with the knowledge that you have gained. Be at Peace with the understanding that you have now of that which is life as Spirit in Body. It is important that you accept your own life as one of blessing, for indeed you have been blessed in this lifetime.

It is the knowledge of the one who comes now as JEY and in the will of the Creator that you have at this time a deeper understanding of that which would occur to you as being a time close to that which would be Earth Changes. What JEY wishes to express at this time is this... You are seeing upon the Earth many things occurring at this time.. many in a physical form.. those things that are reported simply to be record-breaking events. Know that these are now that which you would call a chaos at this time; however it is important that you understand that there are many who are caught in these events upon the Earth who consider them a 'chaos' in their lifetime. It is often that which would bring complete destruction to all that they have. For many it does indeed bring an end to their life; but you who are known upon the Earth at this time as OMEGA must understand that you continue to form that which is preparation for that which is yet ahead of you. And so JEY would ask that you simply accept that this meeting together has been one of blessing for you.. one which will unite you in purpose.. one which will give you a stimulus that will lead you onward to be more fully prepared for that which you must complete upon the Earth.

This one who comes as Guardian of Spirit for the one who serves as voice, and also one who comes as Gatekeeper for OMEGA, comes with Love for you and does come to endow you with a greater energy that you can simply access at this time. JEY would ask you to receive a blessing and would ask you to take this blessing with you, for there will be in the days to come a need for the additional energy that you can receive at this time. Simply allow your heart to be open. Allow your thought to be on Love, on Preparation, on Energy.. and know that when you allow it to be, you will feel an influx of energy into your very being. And so in this time of quiet now seek to allow this energy from Spirit to be entered into your very physical self.. for indeed not only will your Spirit be energized but so will your physical self. Allow it to be.

JEY comes now and does give thanks for that opportunity and would wish at this time to allow another who came to help you to understand your journey upon the Earth.. to allow that one to come to be with you. You will fully understand why this one has come now to be in your presence, and will indeed share with you that which is a knowledge that you will indeed understand as well. Be at Peace.

YES! This one gives thanks for the opportunity to once again communicate with you, for it has been that which has been many days, many months since this group was intact as it is at this moment. And so this one will come to say to you that this one is in Spirit and does come to you as HORIZON and does come with much Joy and much Love for each of you. HORIZON comes at this time because it is important that you once again understand what is meant by the name which is used by this one who is in Spirit.. the name of HORIZON. You were told in times past that the name was important because it would give emphasis to your Spiritual Growth as it did for the lifetime of this one upon the Earth, when this one was able to see beyond the horizon. Now, you have after these many times of study, of lessons of interacting.. you have now reached a point where you can indeed see beyond the horizon. And so HORIZON comes at this time to encourage you to lift up your head, lift up your heart, open wide those eyes that serve you so well upon the Earth, and look beyond your daily life.. .for you have now achieved the ability to see beyond, to look beyond that which is the physical aspect of life. You now have the ability to see beyond the horizon. Accept this! Know that it is a gift for you.. .but a gift that you have earned through your diligence as you have sought to prepare for your life in a future time upon the Earth. Do not be in a great hurry to see that which is the Earth Change which is to come. Simply know that it will be here and know that as it does arrive you will be prepared for it. It is important that you not anticipate that which would be a disaster for your own physical self, but know that your physical self as well as your Spiritual self will be strengthened to the extent that you will be able to fulfill your purpose upon the Earth.

This does not come as a promise that can be broken. Know that this one comes to you.. .even as in the past.. .with much Love, does come in the will of the Creator, and does come as for a purpose as even in the past. And so as this one now can say to you.. .HORIZON came to tell you that it is possible to see beyond the horizon. Now this one comes to tell you that you have the ability so to do. It is for you to so discipline your life each day that you can indeed see beyond the horizon as you know it at this time. Be at Peace! Know that this one comes with much Love and does endow you with this ability because it is the will of our Creator that it be so. Go now in Love and know that although this one does not come to communicate at all times, you remain in the Love of this one and as there is a need this one who is HORIZON will help you, whether you are Spirit in Body or whether you are in Spirit. That comes as a promise! Know that this one now will bid you a farewell until there is a time that is necessary for HORIZON to come again. Go now in Love.

JEY returns and would ask that you accept this gift that has been given to you so freely, for indeed you have earned it. You have been able to scale that which was, at the beginning, a mountain that appeared to be one that could not be reached simply a day at a time.. .seeking to take one footstep at a time. But you have! And know that you are indeed to be commended, that you are now receiving that which has been a reward for your effort upon the Earth. You are indeed those who are special in Spirit at this time; and as you inhabit the body which you have, give thanks for that body for it has enabled you to fulfill your purpose at this time which is ahead for you. Go now in Love. Know that JEY continues to be gatekeeper for OMEGA and does come with Love and Understanding, and would wish you that which is Peace as well. Go now in Peace. AMEN.
