JEY is here and does come at this time in the will of the Creator and does come with Love. It has been important for each of you to be here at this time for the purpose of discussing those things which have been in your thoughts. It is important that you gather from this discussion those things that will assist you in your determination of Truth. It is important that you understand that each of you have separate needs as you come to these meetings; and as you discuss many things, each of you then are to take from that discussion those that will fulfill the needs that you have. And so JEY suggests at this time that you not seek only for that which is something that all of you would accept at a given time; but rather each of you seek for those things that will fulfill a spiritual need that you have.. .an understanding that you have.

JEY would at this time address this one topic, however, for you. There has been some discussion with regard to that which has been what you have called PROPHECY. It is important that you understand those prophecies that are given, for what they are. When one comes to a point where they have an ability to prophecy, you must understand that many times those prophecies are made in the context of what that one who is the 'prophecy maker' understands to be Truth, for they are indeed based on experiences which they have had. And so as you understand that then you can connect with that prophecy which would seem to you to be Truthful ... which would seem to you to be a reasonable prophecy.

There are many who have the ability to simply state the prophecy that they may have; but you must understand that it is based on their experiences and on the outlook that they have as well as the Spiritual guidance which they receive. Therefore, all prophecies that you may hear or may read do not in fact have that which is the possibility or the probability of becoming actuality. And so as JEY comes to have the opportunity to address that, JEY would ask you to simply go with that which you understand to be Truth based on what you have learned and what your own being is willing to accept as Truth.

At this time JEY is aware that there is much occurring upon the Earth Plane and much that does not bode a positive aspect; but know that as well those of us who are in Spirit are joining with you in your prayers and meditations as you seek for a positive outcome of many of those things which look to be a very negative event upon the Earth. And so as we who are in Spirit join you in your prayers and meditations that is an added strength that is given to your own prayers. And we who are in Spirit look upon those of you who are Spirit in Body upon the Earth as being those who have an opportunity now.. .as you have had in the past.. .an opportunity to have an effect on those things that come to pass upon the Earth.

As JEY is able to understand from this viewpoint in the Spirit Realm, there are going to be still many things take place upon the Earth that will cause much misery to mankind. But that does not mean that you should dwell only upon those things. What you are about in your position upon the Earth at this time is to prepare to cope with whatever is ahead. We who are in Spirit would ask that you be strengthened Spiritually and mentally, physically and emotionally in all ways that you may be able to cope with whatever comes about upon the Earth. There will be many things occur that are of a physical nature. Yes! it is important that you be prepared for that. There are many things that will affect you emotionally as well as Spiritually; but you must know that your mental aspect must be strengthened in that it will not lead you astray as you are able to deal with all things emotionally, all things spiritually, that come into your path. JEY would ask that you retain control of your own life, your own being, regardless of what takes place upon the Earth. You are here for a purpose. That purpose is to assist others who are Spirit in Body as events cause them to lose control of their own life, their own being. And as you have the opportunity to so assist another, you will find that you are going to be strengthened so much in your ability to help another. Each consequence does indeed provide for you an opportunity to help others that come into your path.

JEY has the ability and the opportunity now to help you; and you in turn have that ability to help another when there is an opportunity to help another.

JEY would say this to one who is here for the first time. Know that as you have sought to be with this gathering at this time, you are one of many throughout the years which have passed who have come to gather strength from others who are of like mind. This does not mean that you are one who must learn many things at this time, for you already are one of much knowledge. So JEY would advise you simply to begin to seek further for those things of Truth. Allow your heart and your mind to be open to that which can come to you from Spirit. And know that as you open your heart and your mind that you will begin to receive additional strength, additional energy from those who are in Spirit. You simply must allow it to be so.

And so at this time JEY would say to each of you that as you have put forth those names of those who are Spirit in Body and are in need of assistance, we who are in Spirit hear your desires and will indeed gather with you in prayer for those who are in need. Be aware that there are many who are troubled, who are ill in body at this time. There are many who are ill in Spirit at this time. And we would ask that you simply continue in prayer for those who are in need of such.

JEY comes at this time to advise you, too, that as you gather here at this time we will surround you with the energy that you need to be able to not only help others but to provide you with the energy that is necessary for you to contribute to the ongoing of Spiritual growth throughout the area in which you live. You need to be willing to provide opportunity for others to hear Truth come from your own voice. And as you do so, those Truths gain strength as others then are able to internalize them. And know that as you have the ability to help them they in turn have the ability to help others.

Be not fearful of whatever comes to pass in your life each day. Know that you have the strength and knowledge to ask for help, and you know from whence cometh your help. It has been said to you in that which you call your scripture. So as you call upon the Eternal Spirit... that which is the Creator of all things...know that we who are in the Spirit Realm hear your call. It is our responsibility to come to your assistance as you call upon the Creator of all Things for the help that you need. We come willingly and with much Love to help you achieve that which is necessary in your life. Do not hesitate to ask for help when there is a need!

And so JEY comes at this time mindful that you are indeed still seeking for information that will lead you to a deeper knowledge of Spirit, a deeper knowledge of the understanding of your relationship to our Creator, a deeper knowledge of the Universe in which you live. You have nothing to fear. You are being guided very carefully. Accept that! And accept that as you have the need for knowledge you need only to ask and it shall be provided for you.

Go now in the peace and the knowledge that you loved by all who are in your care... not only here but those who are on the Earth as well. We in Spirit have a knowledge of your needs as you speak them. Those who are Spirit have an awareness of your needs as you go to them and talk with them and work with them. All is Spirit. Some of you are simply in Body. We are not. We are those who come to you in Spirit. You in turn share that with others who are Spirit in Body. Accept the Love that we have for you. Accept the strength that we can help you achieve. And go now with the knowledge that you can know peace and you can know Truth and you can know Love. Accept it. Go now in Peace.
