JEY is here.

As you have gathered here, the warmth of your Love is made known to those of us who are in the Spirit Realm and we rejoice in that. It is through your gatherings that you share the joy and love with each other; and as you take the time out of your daily lives to gather and to share those activities of your lives and the events of your lives, know that those of us who are in Spirit and who have watch over you do indeed rejoice in the opportunity to do so. It is now that JEY simply comes as one who is Gatekeeper for OMEGA and does give thanks for that responsibility during this time in the Spirit Realm, and does give thanks that this one has the opportunity to use the voice of one who is sharing upon the Earth at this time.

May it be always that you will be able to open your hearts and your minds and to seek for Truth, and then to accept the Truths that you find; for it is in so doing that your lives are made full and you are blessed beyond all that you could imagine in this lifetime. It is the joy of those of us who serve as Guardians of Spirit to be able to be in your midst when you gather, to share in the joy you experience, for we too gain from that which is joyful for you.

At this time JEY would ask that you simply allow JEY to communicate to you something that may be of importance to you now and in the days to come.

As you have the opportunity to share with one another in this lifetime, know that it is a time where you are growing in Spirit when you are able to share your joyous and spiritual experiences. Your Spirit Within you does indeed have an opportunity to expand and to know with you the worth of such joy. It is important that you as a physical being be aware that ALL that you do does in some way affect your Spirit. And so as you look for those things upon the Earth to experience, know that this does help your Spirit to become stronger and more aware of that which is being created upon the Earth that will serve as a lesson for that Spirit Within you.

It is with much Love that JEY has had the opportunity to come and to share with you those bits of Spiritual Truth which have been shared. And know that although JEY has, for these many months and many years, been able to share through the one who now allow voice to be used, know that this is only a small part of the Spiritual understanding that you can look forward to. Even as those who have served upon the Earth as OMEGA and have now returned to the Spirit Realm have experienced the exhilaration and joy of having been able to receive Spiritual Truths upon the Earth, even so they are delighting now in the opportunities that they have to again serve and to work with those who are Spirit in Body.

We who are Spirit would encourage each of you to take the time daily to look for another who you will be willing to help upon the Earth Plane. This is not asking you to simply devote your life to the service of another, for indeed all are to make decisions for selves... all are to work to better selves... but know that within the heart of every one there is a space that can be filled by a kind word, a deed that would let them know that someone else cares for them. It is at this point that JEY wishes to say this. Even as YOU have had the opportunity to become that which you call a member of a group. .a spiritual study group known as OMEGA, you have in turn had the opportunity to influence others. This has been important in your life... not that you have encouraged others to become followers of the same Spiritual Journey that you are one - but you have had the opportunity simply to allow them to know that there is more to life than just the usual day-to-day activities that fill the life of mankind. Even as you have the opportunity to share the beauty of the Light within you, you in turn allow another to glimpse that Light... which in turn will allow them to grow in the beauty of the Light of the Creator and thus share with another.

This may sound familiar to you, for there has been in your language upon the Earth that which you would call a 'domino effect'... In other words, one will affect another. You must understand that in your daily life the things that you do and say may seem of little import to you; but know that many are affected by what you do and say at this time. Even as you are surrounded by those who understand your needs... your Spiritual needs... at this time, know that you are affecting each other as you are gathered in this spot at this time. And so you look to that which is an opportunity for you, whether large or small, and take advantage of the opportunity. It is that which you must reckon with if you do not take advantage of the opportunity. Indeed opportunities do not always present themselves at a given time. If you need an opportunity for you to share with another, to do for another, know that it is not something that has to be planned, but it is something that you can do NOW without the realization that you have to plan, to think and do. There is always that which can be done in the NOW. And so you must take advantage of that.

JEY would suggest at this time that you let one other who is in Spirit come to communicate with you at this time. As you gathered here there are many of you who do not have the opportunity to often gather; and so JEY suggests at this time that you be willing to allow another to come. And so if this is your will you can open your heart and mind at this time and JEY will allow it to be so.

AMEN! This one comes now, aware of your purpose upon the Earth; but this one comes more fully aware of the culmination of your purpose upon the Earth. And this one wishes to encourage you now with some thoughts that will provide an impetus for you in reaching the end of the fulfillment of your purpose, with the knowledge that it can be achieved. Allow this one to say that this one will not come again to communicate and will simply tell you that as a MESSENGER OF THE CREATOR this one has been given the opportunity and responsibility of communicating with you. Be at Peace and accept that.

Even as you are here gathered at this time, many of you may be at a time where you are unsure of your purpose upon the Earth. You are questioning what it is that you need to be accomplishing. And as you have that in your mind, this one would say that there is one way to overcome questioning and to begin now to be accepting.

There is always that which will be an impediment to progression upon the Earth... an impediment to your own Spiritual Understanding. But know that this can be overcome. All that is necessary is that you be willing to allow the Spirit Within you to guide you daily... to guide your thinking..., to guard you... to help you overcome those things that would appear to you to be a time of danger or a block in your daily progression upon the Earth. This one would encourage you simply to be more mature in your thinking as a Spiritual being and less inclined to simply question all that is presented to you. IF you begin to allow your maturity to become of such status that you can encourage others to look beyond the problems of their day, then you will have achieved what you are wanting to achieve upon the Earth.

We who are in Spirit, of course, have the advantage of being able to know the answers to questions. You on the other hand are accepting much by faith. You are accepting those things that are presented to you simply through faith! Those who have come to you as Spirit to communicate are in the will of the Creator, but it is your faith in that which your Spirit is encouraging you to experience that has led you to be where you are now. As you are aware, the religions upon the Earth, of which you are a part, do indeed stress faith; and perhaps you may think it is often blind faith. But your faith at this time is not blind. Your faith is predicated upon the fact that you have been given information through Spirit that would help you move forward. It is simply because you are allowing that faith to become a vital part of your life each day. and so this one would encourage you not simply to accept everything you hear and read but with discernment and with the ability to see the Truth and hear the Truth of what you are given, go with the Faith that is based on the Truths that you are given that you can accept within your own heart. Know that your Spirit Within you is OF the Creator, is one of great strength, is one that is able to give an impetus to those things of Truth that are given to you at this time. This one would encourage you not to question but to look forward each day with the knowledge that this is a new opportunity, a new experience. "I shall accept it; I shall do my best; I shall encourage others to know Love and Joy; and I shall move forward to the end of the day, knowing I have done all that is necessary for me to do."

You need not be afraid; you need not be discouraged. But simply know that every day is placed before you as a new beginning. You can begin the day with an excitement, a joy, a love; and look forward to every challenge that is to be given to you that day. May it always be thus in the remainder of the lives that you have. Be excited about what God is giving you. Be excited about who you are what your purpose is upon the Earth. May the Creator of all Things as you know the Creator to be bless you and keep you in a time upon the Earth where you are indeed fulfilling and experiencing all that is meant for you at this time. Allow this one to say to you, too, that as you accept that which has been given to you as a priority in your life, know that you will leave this Earth when the time comes for you to make that passing rejoicing and knowing that you will be benefited from the life you have led at this time. Even so, those who have been known as OMEGA and have now regained their status in the Spirit Realm have the opportunity to rejoice each day and be thankful for the opportunity to work as OMEGA, not as Spirit in Body but as Spirit. And so it is... whether you are Spirit or Spirit in Body, there is always the opportunity to receive and then in turn to give. That is necessary whether you serve on the Earth or in the Spirit Realm.

Be at Peace. Know that we who are in Spirit watch over you, give you Love and guidance that we feel you need at this time. But know none of you who are gathered here at this time can expect to be simply taken by the hand and guided daily. Allow your Spirit to help you and then you make the decisions based on the guidance of your Spirit Within. That is the way it is to be. And so at this time this one comes asking you... and giving you Love... and asking you that your Love in turn be given to another who is in need. Go now in Peace.

JEY returns and would ask you to keep the words that have been spoken in your hearts. Indeed they are words that will have meaning to you more so as you go forth in the day to come. Know that you must always remember that Love is the key to all that brings Love at this time. You can share it or store it away and allow it to simply become another possession which you little need. Love grows only through the sharing. Go now in Love. Amen.
