JEY is here and does come now in the will of the Creator and does come with much Love. It is important that you have accepted those things which you have just read with the understanding that they have come from Spirit and in the will of the Creator and have come as Truth. It is important that you internalize those things which you have read, for it Is Truth from which you will gain much strength in the days to come. It is important, too, that you understand that you are in those days where there is indeed a finality of that which is your purpose upon the Earth.

And so as you look forward to completing this which has been a journey of faith on the Earth, know that you will be strengthened, you will be given those things that are necessary for you, and you will be given the guidance that you need.

JEY is here at this time simply to give you an added strength, and added understanding of your role upon the Earth at this time.

As you are aware, there has been within this which is known as OMEGA many, many times of communication where those who are OMEGA upon the Earth have been given information regarding their purpose upon the Earth. And those of you who have come to this which is the group known as OMEGA in these which are the latter days of information, of learning, of understanding, of guidance know that you have come prepared for the information which you have received. Your Spirit Within you has helped you to internalize all that has been given to you. And so you...along with others who have been indeed among those who have been known to be OMEGA from early days, you are as advanced in understanding and in Spiritual Knowledge at this time as are others who are upon the earth as OMEGA.

It is important for you to accept that within the Spirit Realm we are in a time of providing that which is energy for you, which is encouragement for you, which is the knowledge that you have been given. All of these things are our responsibility. And so even as you have a responsibility upon the Earth, we are indeed in a time of accepting our responsibility as well. It Is important for you to acknowledge that indeed you are aware of that which is Spiritual Understanding, Spiritual Truth which has been brought to you by those of us who are in the Spirit Realm. As you live upon the Earth each day as Spirit in Body, it is important that you give that which is special acceptance to that which is your Spirit Within and the guidance it has provided for you in this lifetime. Of course, each of you...because that which is Spirit has lived within a physical mind and a physical body and that which is the mind of a physical body...you have indeed encountered those things which you look upon now as negative aspects of your life. But JEY wishes again to say to you that every experience that you have had, everything that you have encountered upon the Earth in this lifetime, has been of value to you whether or not you call it a negative event or a positive event. It has been of value to you. And so as you look upon the many things that have occurred in your life and the many things you wish had not occurred, know that you have nothing to fear, for they were of value to you, they were lessons learned.

And so now as you can look toward that which is a culmination of your own responsibility upon the Earth, know that each thing you have encountered in this life will indeed come to a time where they will benefit you...not only physically but Spiritually as well.

If you had in this lifetime encountered only that which is positive, how could you then help one who is undergoing a very negative time in their life? If you understood only positive things, how could you help those who have understood only negative things? It is through that learning that you have had, and the understandings you have had that you are able to help others at this time. So do not discount any experience...any one experience..., that you have had upon the Earth. Rather, give thanks that not only have you experienced the positive and the negative, but you have survived upon this Earth knowing that there was that which was a positive atmosphere through which you would be able to overcome all things that occurred and were not connected with the growth of your Spirit upon the Earth in a positive way.

Yet, it was necessary for your physical body to experience the negative things. If JEY is not making it clear for you at this time, just simply accept that those things of a negative nature were of value to you as well as those things of a positive nature. That is the lesson that perhaps you need to remember at this time.

JEY also wishes to advise you that at this time upon the earth when you are anticipating helping others by distributing information which you have and which you have been distributing to those who are OMEGA on the Earth, know that it will have value to them, but know that it is important that you are aware that they can understand the information that is to be given to them. And how do you do that? You simply pray for guidance in that which is the distribution of the information which has been given. You do not attempt to distribute the information without first seeking the guidance and the protection not only of yourself, but the guidance of those who will receive and understand that which is the information.

Be aware that throughout this which is the land in which you live, there are many who are seeking for truth, but there are also many who do not have the opportunity to understand truth at this time which it is presented to them. And so when it falls upon that which is barren ground. When the truth falls upon that which barren ground, it will not take root. And yet, you need to be in prayer for those people. And as the truths are planted in the hearts and minds of those who have an understanding and an acceptance of truth, then you can be aware that it will bear fruit, that they in turn, will be able to share with others.

JEY would ask you always to be prayerful about those with whom you share the information which has been given to you. And as you seek that they will be able to understand that this, too, can come to pass through the positive aspect of your thinking.

JEY would ask you to remember that there are those upon the Earth who at this time, are undergoing much which is a very negative aspect of life. They are undergoing that which is mistreatment, that which is war, that which is starvation, that which is the knowledge which is being given to them which is not truth, yet is impacting their lives JEY would ask you to remember always those who are less fortunate than self. Remember them in your prayers, and know that each prayer which you send forth is then given additional energy by those of us in the Spirit Realm.

And as you look upon the Earth upon which you live and see all those things that are occurring upon the Earth at this time, know that you need to hold that Earth within your very heart and allow the energy of your own thoughts to go forth to every aspect of the Earth upon which you live. This Earth is precious not only to those of you who live upon it, but to those of us in Spirit, for we look upon the Earth as a very beautiful part of the universe in which you live. And so we grieve, too, with you, at those things which that are occurring upon the Earth as a result of the abuse that has been poured upon the Earth throughout the many lifetimes of mankind. We ask you each day to send forth that which is your love, and a prayer for healing upon the Earth upon which you live, for indeed, this is a living entity, even as your energy is alive. And so it is important for you not to forget this Earth which gives you life for without the Earth and the bounty which it supplies to you, you could not survive upon the Earth.

So as JEY is coming, giving you this information, JEY is very much aware that you are aware of all things which JEY has mentioned. But JEY would come with one final bit of knowledge for you, and that is this: That as you travel these later days of your life upon the Earth as Spirit in body, as OMEGA, know that that which survives in the Spirit Realm and is also known as OMEGA, that they, too, are surrounding you with added energy, added love, to help you along your way. There has been within the Spirit Realm, that which has been a companion group of Spirits which have helped you find your way to this which is the OMEGA group that you now know as one who is providing the help in the days that are necessary upon the Earth. And as you reach out to help others, just know that there is a companion in that which is the Spirit Realm that is reaching out with you to help others. You are never going to be alone on the Earth plane. There are going to be those in Spirit who are going to be helping you, encouraging you, who will enable you to do that which is necessary. And so JEY would simply ask that you give thanks to the Creator for this great Plan which has been reaching forth not only to you, but to many who are upon the Earth. And as we are aware in the Spirit Realm, there is indeed a Divine Plan which is being worked out upon the Earth but know that the events that are taking place upon the Earth are indeed a physical change that will take place. Yet there is the Divine Plan which will help the Earth to once again be renewed and to return to that which is a place of beauty where mankind will live in Peace. And you, dear ones who are Spirit in Body at this time, are to be instrumental in helping this come to pass.

JEY comes with much Love, with much Truth; and would ask you to simply open hearts and minds and receive the Love and the guidance that has continued to come to you from those who are in the Spirit Realm. We give you Love. We ask you to accept it. And we ask you to extend to others this Love which has been so freely given. May the Creator of us all grant you the guidance that you need each hour of the day as you continue to follow the journey that you began.. .not here upon the Earth but in that which is the Spirit Realm many times past. You are now seeing it come to pass. Be at Peace. Go in Love. AMEN
