This one comes now and known to you as JEY and does come in the will of the Creator, and would ask that you be at peace and allow your hearts to be open. JEY has indeed been in your midst during this time of meeting and is aware of that which you have been discussing. JEY would assure you that you need have no concerns about this one who comes to communicate through the voice of Louise, for indeed this one has been in the care of that spirit throughout the entire lifetime. And so JEY comes now with much love for that spirit and much care for that which is spirit in body.

At this time allow JEY to say this to those of you who are here gathered. You have an opportunity while you live as spirit in body to allow that which is communication with the realm of spirit. You have the ability to so communicate. But it must come from within your own heart that you would say 'Yes, I wish to communicate with that which is my guardian of spirit. And yes I understand that this is an ability that I have. And yes I know that I can allow it to be so'. And so it is your decision to make. It is an opportunity that you have and that which you must seek to fulfill if you wish for a closer relationship with your guardian of spirit.

This one who comes as JEY does indeed give thanks that the one who is now serving as voice for many of you who wish to hear truth...JEY does give thanks for that... that the voice has been able to be used; but know that it was not without much prompting on the part of those of us who are in the spirit realm. Indeed the spirit of the one who is Louise often did long for such an opportunity but in this lifetime upon the earth that one who is spirit in body was involved in much that required that which was time. And so as you are well aware at this time, there is a necessity for the time to be so given in order to allow the discipline to be made in order for the spirit to communicate with the guardian of spirit.

And so it is necessary for each of you to provide a time in your day to sit quietly in that time in order for you to be able to seek for the will of God to be done in your life, and to seek that your own guardian of spirit would be able to communicate with you...whether it be through thought that can then be put into words, or whether it is simply thought in itself and that you be able to understand those thoughts and then put into action what has been said and given to you.

This is no secret upon the earth plane for throughout the earth there are many who have indeed given a time to be able to seek after truth through communication with the spirits. It is important of course that you make an effort to be guided by the seeking for truth only. And as you allow that to be...as you ask for the guidance that you need... this can be done. As you have in this time of discussion been able to learn much about the role of those who are guardians of spirit...or guides as you might wish to call them... know that they do indeed take on a responsibility when they agree to accept or they seek after the responsibility of being a guardian of spirit. Allow JEY to say that it was known that JEY did indeed live during the lifetime in which the one who is now Louise lived upon the earth. And it was through that time that there was much difficulty in life in which JEY did live and did have access to the one who was spirit in body at that time. It is important that you understand that we who are in the spirit realm often come back to be the guardian of spirit for one in order to right that which was not a positive experience upon the earth. And so this was indeed the case of that which was the relationship of the one who is JEY with the one who is now Louise. And so it is important that you understand that we often choose to be your guardian of spirit; and when that is approved, it is known before the spirit returns to live in body upon the earth. And so the spirit that you know now as JEY did indeed accept the responsibility for the spirit that you now know as Louise. And so it is important that you understand this relationship and know that it simply does not happen by chance. We have a choice. Our free will is still in operation when we are in spirit, even as it is as spirit in body. There must be that contract between the spirit that remains in the spirit realm and the one who returns to earth to live in body once again. And so JEY feels a great responsibility for the one who is spirit in body as Louise; and it is important that you recognize that responsibility which your guardian of spirit has with you. And if you recognize that and understand, your spirit within will make that attempt to communicate with your guardian of spirit. Know that there is great rejoicing in the spirit realm when this occurs, for that does give direct access to the receiving of truth for the spirit that is within you while it is yet spirit in body. And you are thus strengthened and able to do more fully that for which you came to earth to do in this lifetime. It was necessary for the one who is JEY to be able to communicate with the one who is spirit in body as Louise at this time for it was to again be a time of coming together of all those who are known upon the Earth at this time as OMEGA. This was to be the fulfillment of your contract upon the earth during this lifetime.

And so even as this one has been able to use that ability, it would important for you to be able to communicate as spirit to spirit during the time when it will be necessary for you to be an emissary of those of us who are still in the spirit realm. Allow this to be known to others, for it is important that they seek now to be able to communicate through thought with those who are their guardians of spirit.

Even as JEY is aware that many others have come to teach during these times of meeting upon the Earth with others who are of like mind, know that they too have come to teach the lessons that have been so vital for you. And so JEY does take great interest in this which is now being undertaken within the group... and that is simply a review of lessons that have been brought in the past. Those were the base lessons that you needed to learn. Those were the simple answers that we needed to give to you. And since that time you have come through a journey that has been based on those very simple and basic things that you had to know in the very beginning. And so these are once again being reviewed and once again being shared with others at this time.

JEY would ask you to simply seek daily now to be able to communicate with your guardian of spirit, for even though you may be able to receive only those thoughts that are sent to you, that is so important at this time. Be at peace with this. Know that JEY does come in the will of the Creator at all times and does indeed allow you to know such. But also JEY is much aware of the responsibility that JEY has for giving only truth to you; and so it is with others who have come to bring those lessons to you that you have needed. At this time JEY would simply ask you to go in peace and know that you are much loved, and above all that you will be helped in your seeking after Truth. Go now in Love with the knowledge that you are of Love. AMEN.
