JEY does come now and is in your presence and does give thanks for the opportunity to be with you in Spirit once again. It is important for you to know that as you have been in a time of discussion there have been many who have been present with you; and if you could but see those who are here in Spirit, you would rejoice with them even as they rejoice with you. It is now the purpose of JEY, to come in the will of the Creator and does come as Guardian of Spirit of the one known as instrument. It is important this one be able to give you information that will further help you to understand that which is occurring upon the Earth. But first allow JEY to say that as you gather here and are strengthened in your resolve to be one who is responsible for fulfilling your mission upon the Earth, know that you have the ability then not only to seek for Truth but you have the ability to seek Truth. And each of you who are here have that ability in your daily lives as you have a time of quiet where you can be open to receive those Truths that can be given to you by Spirit. You have the opportunity to receive; but know that you must be willing to take the time to spend in aloneness...a time of peace and quiet in order for your spirit to be able to give you the information that will be helpful to you. JEY comes well aware that the lifetime which you are living at this time is one not only filled with much work that is necessary for the fulfillment of your lives upon the Earth, but also that which is necessary as an individual as Spirit in Body for you to be able to have the time necessary for you to communicate with Spirit.

We who are in the Spirit Realm attempt to help you daily in your life, for we have been given that responsibility. Those who are your Guardians of Spirit seek to be with you to help you each day of your life on Earth; but you must be willing to allow your thoughts to be open to receive that which is Truth. And so JEY would at this time ask of you that you give thought to the possibility of setting aside a time each day where you will seek after things of Truth from that which is your Spirit Within.

And now at this time JEY would ask that you be at peace, that you now remain in a time of meditation, and that you will allow another to come and communicate with you. It is important that you be willing to accept what that one has to bring to you at this time, with the knowledge that all who come to your midst at this time do come in the will of the Creator; and know that JEY does indeed remain as Gatekeeper for that which is OMEGA and does allow only that which is Truth to be given to you. And so again JEY would ask you to remain in meditation and be open to what is to be given to you.

PEACE BE WITH YOU! You have been in a time of feeling much fear during this time of meeting. (We had been discussing all the chaos that has been occurring upon the Earth during the past weeks.) And this one would ask you to allow your hearts to be at peace. Do not let your mind be troubled, for you must know that at this time upon the Earth you are feeling guidance in your life and in the decisions that you make in this life...the guidance and protection each day. This one comes in the will of the Creator, as has been said, and will simply identify to you as one who is MESSENGER. You are aware that those who come and identify to you as MESSENGER do come in the will of the Creator, and they do come to share with you the Truths that are Eternal, Truths that can set you free from all those things of concern upon the Earth. We do come to enable you to fulfill your purpose upon the Earth, and we work with you tirelessly and yet with joy, for we are here to help you fulfill that for which you came to Earth. Your Spirit Within you is at this time communicating with this one who is in your presence as Spirit.

We come in joy; we come in love; we come to enable your spirit to be strong to guide you in your daily actions, your lives, each day. But what this one has to say to you as well is this. You have spoken with sadness of many things that are occurring upon the Earth. You have felt perhaps a bit of fear with regard to things that have occurred within lives upon the Earth. You have a feeling of fear and horror of the things you see occurring at this time to many who live upon the Earth. This one would say to you "Do not let your hearts be troubled at this time. You are seeing that for which you have been forewarned. You are seeing those things occur that you have been told would occur." This should come as no surprise to you. Indeed, as you see the patterns changing in the Earth, you are aware that those things were to occur, for you were told that there would be upheavals in the Earth. Were you not told that there would be great waters, great floods, great winds? You would be told these things would occur. It is simply that you have the ability now to receive this information daily through communication upon the Earth, and so at this time you are well aware of these things which occur and the impact they are having on the people of the Earth.

There is at this time an urgency to your preparation, but above all to your EMOTIONAL preparation...as you have been told in the past. You must be willing and able to see beyond what is happening in order that you may be emotionally stable and emotionally mature to help others who will be in your presence at a time where your help will be needed. What you need to do at this point is simply to send forth your prayers, and know that prayers do indeed have a strength, a power, to help others who are in need upon the Earth Plane. You must be willing to take the time to send forth those prayers; and you must be willing to prepare self for what is in the future for you who are here in this group. Yet, this one would ask you not to be fearful but to accept that indeed you have been promised that those of us in Spirit will indeed be with you, be able to communicate with you, will be able to help you in all ways necessary for you to serve upon the Earth.

Know that in the region in which you live upon the Earth does indeed have what you might call a proclivity to that which can be danger; but know that as you live within this region you are well aware that there are those things that can occur that will bring much damage, much suffering. But you are to be beyond that! You know there will be opportunities for you to serve others. You must be prepared for that. And so at this time, this one who comes as MESSENGER for the Creator would simply ask you not to be concerned for what is to come but rather to be prepared. Is it not true that as you live each day, you are not concerned whether or not you will have food for the day to come or that you will have that which is necessary to provide for your safety and comfort for your physical body? Then do not be fearful of what is to be in the future, for you will have the ability to provide for self and the ability to comfort others as it is needed.

This one who comes as MESSENGER would further say this to you. As you send forth your prayers that will enable those in need to be strengthened by your prayers, know that is important that you continue to feel the strength that you have that enables you to so pray that the thoughts and energies of your thoughts will be able to help others who are in need. You are not that which we would call a 'novice' of this ability to pray for others at this time. Throughout these months and years which have passed you have been encouraged over and over to spend time in prayer, to spend time in meditation; and so it should come to you now as a normal and natural part of your daily life that you would spend some time in prayer and meditation. This is important for you more so than ever at this time in your life upon the Earth. Give time to that which is necessary. And as you look forward to the days to come, the months to come, know that whatever shall occur upon the Earth Plane, you will be able to deal with it emotionally, you will be able to deal with it because your Spirit Within will enable you to overcome the frailty of your body and mind, in order to deal with whatever may come. You have been blessed in many ways. You have chosen this path which you are now on. You have been given the ability to learn much and to accept much that is given to you. We would ask you not to falter at this time but rather to be strengthened in your desire and in your will at this time upon the Earth.

We who come in Spirit and are in your presence at this time would simply ask you to feel that which is the added energy that you can receive from each who is here. It can be felt by each of you. Take this with you as you leave this place. Know that we will be in your care; but know, too, that you must discipline self, that you must be responsible for self as well. We will help, but you have the ability to take responsibility as well. Know this one has come with much Love for each of you and with the knowledge that you have the ability to fulfill your purpose. Go now in peace. Rejoice in the knowledge that you have. Rejoice in the Spirit which resides within you, and know that Yes, it is OF the CREATOR OF ALL THINGS. Even as this one comes as Spirit, that which is the Spirit Within is of the Creator as well. We serve our Creator. You serve our Creator. And we give thanks for that, for we are all of one purpose, we are all of one accord...the Spirit Within you and those that serve in the Spirit Realm. And so we have that kinship with you, that the Spirit Within you is one, even as we are one. Go now in Peace. Know this one has come with- much Love, and will indeed remain in your care as it is necessary. Go in Love.

JEY returns and would ask you simply to be thankful for that which has been received in your thoughts and minds at this time. Be thankful that you have been graced with a strong spirit in your midst at this time, and be thankful that you have been able to receive an added measure of spiritual strength as that one has come to you. You have nothing to fear. You have only to be able to accept that which is your responsibility upon the Earth. JEY comes now with Love and will communicate in the future when there is a need. Go now in Love and be at Peace. AMEN.
