JEY is here; and JEY is aware of those of you who are here at this time. JEY does come now to enter into communication with you. It is important that as you meet as OMEGA that you simply open your hearts and your minds to those truths that have been revealed to you. It is further important that you remember that you are indeed that which is important in the will of the Creator for this time upon the Earth and in your life, for you are one who has chosen to be here; you have chosen to be an implement of good for the Earth at this time. And so JEY would simply ask that you be at peace with your desire to serve the Creator upon the Earth at this time.

Allow JEY to come to give you this information. As you have the opportunity not only to help each other during these times of gathering but also to help others in your thoughts and prayers, know that you become an important link between the Spirit Realm and that which is humanity upon the Earth Plane. You have an opportunity to do much that will bring about peace upon the Earth, that will bring about healing of others who are living as Spirit-in-Body as well. Know that the prayers of each of you do indeed reach the level that is intended for your prayers to reach, and that is the Spirit Realm. As you send forth a prayer, it becomes a wish and as you send forth a wish it becomes a prayer. In other words you can wish for the good of mankind even as that which is a prayer for the good of mankind. And so watch your thoughts, that you think not upon negative things but rather upon positive things that will help the earth upon which you live and will help others who live as Spirit-in-Body as well.

It is important that you not think negatively but rather think upon the positive aspects of life and the positive aspects of your spirit.

It is at this time that JEY would agree to allow another to come and communicate with you, for there is much yet for you to have renewed in your thinking. And so be at peace. Know that JEY simply allows this one to come because it is the will of the Creator. And even as JEY comes to you in the will of our Creator, so do those who are allowed by JEY to communicate. Be at peace now.

KNOW THAT THIS ONE COMES TO YOU NOW THROUGH THE VOICE OF THIS ONE BECAUSE THERE IS A NEED AND BECAUSE IT IS THE WILL OF OUR CREATOR THAT IT BE SO. You have been in a time of discussing much related to the spiritual aspect of your life as Spirit-in-Body, and this one comes simply to generate that which will be more of a passion for your relationship to your Creator and to generate that which will be a concern for others who live upon the Earth as Spirit-in-Body; and also to generate the knowledge of the aspect of Spirit within the Spirit Realm. And so this one will come and identify to you as the one who has indeed been in your thoughts during this time of meeting... the one who has been told to you as LURI

It is important that you accept that this one does indeed come as a Special Messenger from that which is Our Creator; but above all, as that which is a fellow Spirit, for you who are Spirit-in-Body and who dwell upon the Earth Plane at this time are as much Spirit as those of us who dwell within the Spirit Realm. It is simply that your Spirit has chosen to live in Body upon the Earth at this time, while we who dwell within the Spirit Realm are those who have chosen to remain and work with you who are Spirit-in-Body. And so as we come to you and identify simply by a symbolic name for which you have a type of recall, know that this one comes also mindful that we can help you who are here on your journey upon the Earth by allowing your Spirit to know more with regard to that which is necessary for it to know upon the Earth at this time.

Perhaps you have had a thought with regard to that which is the necessity for Spirit to return to Earth in Body. And LURI would simply like to address that aspect of your life at this time. You are aware, of course, that your Spirit has been a part of Creation, of the Eternal Spirit, down through all Eternity that has preceded you in this lifetime upon the Earth. That which is your Spirit has again and again chosen to live upon the Earth Plane as well as in other aspects of the Universe. But what is important to you right now is the time that you are spending as Spirit-in-Body at this time upon the Earth. All other lifetimes have been times of experiencing, of learning, of doing the will of the Creator for your life at that time. But this is a special time for you! You are living as Spirit-in-Body at this time where there is a great need for your prayers, for the energy which you can generate, for that which the help that you can do for others who are Spirit-in-Body. You now not only have the knowledge and ability to help others understand their relationship to the Creator of all things; but you have the knowledge and ability to be of assistance to others who are Spirit-in-Body in physical and mental ways. And so you are a many-faceted Spirit-in-Body at this time, for you have the opportunity to serve in many ways. And this one who comes to you as LURI would ask you to simply look within Spirit and determine what is most important for you in this lifetime upon the Earth. Are you a parent that is more concerned about the welfare and spiritual aspect of those who are put in your care upon the Earth? Or do you look upon this lifetime as one in which you have been given a responsibility for teaching, for helping others who are in body at this time? Or do you look upon the responsibility that has been given to you for all who are upon the Earth at this time, in that you must send forth prayers and become ready for that which is known to be a time of hardship upon the Earth? It is hard to choose between any of these! Indeed, you must not....for you have responsibility in all of these areas. It is important that you simply give a weight of importance to each one, and still it will be difficult for you to do that.

As you have an opportunity now to look upon the life which you are living, give thanks to Our Creator that you not only have this life but you have the knowledge of why you are here and what you must accomplish at this time. It is important that you not delay anything that you can do at a moment that would help another to understand their relationship to the Creator. And as you do that, seek not to harm another in their own special beliefs but seek to enlighten them. Help them to more fully understand, to look beyond what they consider to be truth. Many indeed have a closed mind at this time, but you must understand that is what they have been taught.

You would not be here at this moment were it not that your spirit encouraged you to listen, to seek further, to look beyond. It is important that this occurred, because you who are known on the Earth Plane as OMEGA had to achieve that openness and acceptance; and so you were led daily by some aspect of your life in that one day to open, to be aware, and to be accepting of truths that could be given to you...whether through your Spirit or through other aspects of enlightenment. And so this one who comes to you as LURI simply encourages you to accept the Truth that can be given to you through your own Spirit, and the Truths that can be given to you through communication with those who are in the Spirit Realm. And this one would simply say to you that you are to be led daily in order that you might be strengthened in Spirit as well as in your physical and mental aspects.

You have been given much that many who are Spirit-in-Body wish they could have, and that is the ability to open your heart and mind to Truth. Many seek for this, but they are not willing to open their hearts and minds and seek beyond what they have been taught to be total truth. And so you are blessed. . .so blessed. . . in that aspects of your life. Give thanks and praise daily to the One who is Our Creator, that you have been able to allow an enlightenment to enter into your physical mind at this time. It is not everyone who has the ability to do that; but you are now aware that you came to the Earth as Spirit-in-Body for a purpose. You are fulfilling that purpose. Allow your life now to be so changed upon the Earth that you have no doubt but that you will and you can fulfill that purpose. Be at peace with that. And know that as you further seek to access help from the Spirit Realm, you will receive it. Allow your Spirit to guide you. Allow the Guardian of your Spirit to continually guide you, and allow those of us who come to you as teachers and bringers of Truth to help you as well. We are all here to help you fulfill your purpose upon the Earth. Do not give thought to negative aspects of those things that surround you. You are well aware that the CREATOR of ALL THAT IS is fully in charge of this which is the Universe. You need only to seek to gain acceptance of that which is the Truth that can be given to you which will help you to more fully define your relationship to the Creator. You have the ability to do so. Become an instrument of Truth, an instrument of Peace, an instrument of Love. Do not, as it has been said to you in this time of meeting deny any of those aspects of Truth that you know, for indeed they have helped you to gain the knowledge that you have at this time. Be at peace. Know that this one has come in the will of the Creator and does remain in your care, for it is known that throughout this lifetime upon the Earth you have been known to those of us who are in Spirit, It has been known that you would arrive at this time in your lives upon the Earth, and we who are in the Spirit Realm rejoice that you have found your way. HELP OTHERS TO FIND THEIR WAY AS WELL. Go now in our Love and in Peace.

JEY returns and would simply ask that you be at peace with the information which you have been given; and know that JEY does remain in your midst and does come each of you as you need help. Simply ask for that help. It can be given. And as you leave this place today, go with an added measure of Peace in your life, of that which is enlightenment in your life, for that too shall go with you. Be with you. Know that JEY has come with Love. AMEN.

END OF CONTACT

On July 28, 1998 JEY communicated the following... and it is worth reading again!

JEY would ask you simply to take the information you receive and allow it to become part of your thinking, and then allow your Spirit Within to give you the energy that you need that would help you ascertain the Truth of what you have heard. Know there are so many forms of energy that you are not aware of, and those energies can come to you in many forms; and yet always that which can be given to you in a mode that you can use if you are so attuned to Spirit and to that which is the energy that can be brought to you. Accept that there are always those things that you will question many times, and there are things that you will readily accept. but know that it is your choice as to whether or not you will accept or whether you will simply file away the information that is given and perhaps come back again at some time and search through what you have been given and determine whether or not it is necessary for your Spiritual Growth at this time. JEY would not tell you not to believe or to tell you to believe, but rather that you would allow your Spirit Within to guide you. Each of you who are OMEGA have different journeys to complete upon the Earth; and yet you are attuned to that which is the completion of your journey that will help others during the Earth Changes that are now at hand. It is important for you to know that you have come down through many lifetimes, through many eons. Do not let anything stop you at this time from completing your journey that has been assigned in this lifetime. It is important that you accept that, and know that as you speak of energy you speak of other lives and other times and other universes. All things are possible; and so it is that YOU are the one who decides in this lifetime what you will and will not accept. Allow that now to become a part of your thinking. Go now in Peace with the knowledge that you are of the Creator, that you have an eternal source of energy within you, and that energy is known to you as Spirit. Cherish that Spirit; accept what you can obtain from that Spirit as an Understanding. as Knowledge; and give thanks to our Creator for that. Go now in Peace. AMEN.
