JEY is here and does come now in the will of The Creator and does come to be with you with much Love. It is known that those of you who have gathered here have indeed gathered for a purpose, and that is that you may be further enlightened with regard to your purpose upon the Earth. JEY comes now simply to relate to you this Truth....that as you who are here and known as OMEGA have had time to again review that which has been written and also to talk about that which is within your own heart, you have gained much in the way of enlightenment. And you have given strength to the beliefs which you hold to be Truth....those things of Truth which have been given to you and which you have accepted. We who are in Spirit do give thanks for you and we do rejoice that each of you who are here have the ability to open your hearts and to listen to those things of great value that can bring the enlightenment that you need for your journey upon the Earth Plane at this time. Know that those Truths that were written in paths still bear fruit today as those of you who have read them are aware. It is known that the one who has come to you in Spirit as John has indeed been able to relate those Truths voiced through the one who is instrument, for that which is the welfare, the good, the enlightenment of those of you who reside as Spirit in Body and known as OMEGA. It is important that you accept those things that have been said as Truth, for indeed that one has been assigned a responsibility of continuing to work with those of you upon the Earth Plane as OMEGA.

JEY has the opportunity now to again bring information to you that will further relate to those things of Truth as you know them.

What JEY is able to tell is this. As you are living in this time upon the Earth, you are indeed seeing great changes, not only those physical changes upon the Earth but also changes in the hearts of mankind. It is known that you are witnessing much in the way of violence upon the Earth; but know, too, that there is an awakening upon the Earth at this time, and that there are many who are listening to their Spirit Within and seeking for the guidance that they need. It is important that those who are so listening and who are so receiving the guidance that they need become alert to all that is violent upon the Earth and attempt to further give impetus to that which is the positive aspects by not allowing violence to impact their own lives. Simply do not give thought to the violence upon the Earth but rather to that which is the Peace and the Love that can be brought to you through the Spiritual Understandings that you have.

In turn, you have the opportunity to send forth your thoughts of Peace and Love, that they may encompass those who are involved in the violence and hatred that you see upon the Earth Plane at this time. You are aware of the power that your prayers can have and the input they can have upon the Earth; but you are not aware that your very thoughts, as they are sent forth and even as they are sent forth in your prayers as you think of those who are involved in decision making that would not lead to peace but to further violence. Simply let your thoughts go out to those who are Spirit-in-Body, urging them to change their ways of thinking, their ways of acting, to that which will be in the will of The Creator. Know that as thoughts are sent forth, they become very powerful instruments; and so as you consider those who are in a time of control, of seeking to amass more upon the Earth, or seeking for power over those who live under their rule, know that indeed your thoughts will help in turning them from the lives and decisions they are making to those of a positive nature. When you think of an individual, remember that individual also is Spirit-in-Body, and their Spirit simply needs to be strengthened to change the actions of that individual. Your thoughts will help their Spirit to be strengthened; and that Spirit will in turn be able to influence the thoughts and actions of those making negative decisions upon the Earth. This is indeed such a simple thing that you are empowered to do; but know that it can be done and each of you who are here have the ability to do so. You will in turn feel the impact upon the Earth as you make the decision to help those who are in a negative mode to become one who is positive.

JEY would simply ask that you be at Peace with this which has been given to you, that you let your light so shine that even those who do not receive your thoughts will indeed see the beauty in the life that you live. You do not need to be fearful. You do not speak aloud of those things if you do not desire to do so. But through your actions you are able then to encounter many who will understand that which comes from the radiance of your own being. You have the ability to allow this to occur. May it be so. JEY would at this time ask that you be receptive of another who will come and give you information that is of value at this time. And so JEY would ask you to continue in your meditative stage and allow that one to be in your midst.

THIS ONE COMES NOW IN THE WILL OF THE CREATOR AND DOES COME WITH LOVE AS WELL, AND DOES ASK YOU TO BE AT PEACE. THIS ONE WILL IDENTIFY TO YOU AS ONE WHO HAS NOT BEEN IN YOUR PRESENCE BEFORE, BUT ONE WHO CAN BE HERE TO BRING YOU INFORMATION THAT WILL HELP YOU IN YOUR JOURNEY AND ALSO HELP YOU IN YOUR UNDERSTANDING.

This one will identify once again as one who is a LIGHT BEING, for you have been in a time of seeking after information that might help you to understand more fully that which would be the Universe in which you live. Know that you have discussed some things that will indeed be the topic that this one would wish to talk with you about.

This one who has come as a BEING OF LIGHT simply comes as one who is not in body but who has the ability to travel through the Universe at the speed that would not be known to you but which is of an immediate speed that you would think of but that you would not understand. Simply know that this one is here, is in your midst, and will speak to you. Know that as you are now a Spirit encased within this Body upon the Earth, you do not have the knowledge or the ability to ascertain all that there is to be known about all that is in existence within all the Universes that exist. This one would say that as you once again become Spirit, you will again understand for you have had the opportunity to travel throughout many of the Universes that are known! They are simply the creations of the Eternal Spirit, the Creator of All That Is, the vast energy that does move upon your Earth, that vast energy that does control ALL that does exist! And so as this one is here, this is the opportunity that you have to gather some knowledge with regard to that which you know little about.

As you are Spirit-in-Body, that Spirit does indeed hold vast amounts of knowledge of which you could little understand if it were all given to you at this time. But you can understand those things which are brought to you bit by bit, piece by piece, so that sometime they mesh so they bring to you a clearer view of what you are attempting to understand. What you have here within this Earth which you inhabit on the surface is that which is well known to many...who think they know what there is to know about the Earth but still may know very little. Within this which is your Earth there was the beginning which was indeed a time of great heat, and that heat continues to exist within the Earth. But as the Earth began to evolve and became a beautiful planet on the outside and in the dimensions that you see as you talk about the Earth, this Earth has been able to provide life and allow life to begin. As that which has been the evolution of your own life upon the Earth, you have become that which is a knowledgeable, thinking individual known as Spirit-in-Body. That body has been created from those things of the Earth which has allowed it to live. You have been given the elements of the Earth that are necessary for the body to live and grow and to become a creator of other bodies upon the Earth.

You have been given great privilege to live upon this beautiful planet which you call the Earth and which has evolved from the early beginning as simply that which was heat. Heat is simply energy as you have learned...that all things are energy...and that energy continues within the center of the Earth. Many times these bits of energy escape from the core throughout the surface of the Earth, and they do indeed cause a great destruction when such energy does escape. You are seeing much upon the Earth at this time in the way of escape of such energy from the center of the Earth which is affecting the atmosphere in which you live; but more than that, the escape of this 'negative' energy, as you might like to call it, is affecting mankind upon the Earth as well. You are blessed inasmuch as you have been able to receive the Truth that would help you keep apart from the negative aspect that is being brought to the surface of the Earth. Simply be aware that you must be diligent in your efforts to remain in contact with the Spirit Within you in order that you may not fall victim to those things that are violent upon the Earth, for indeed no one who lives as Spirit-in-Body is immune from such. And so as you have the opportunity then to stay away from that and keep yourself in touch with the Spirit Within you, you have the opportunity to help others who are Spirit-in-Body so the too may remain alert to those things that will become a detriment to their lives upon the Earth. This of course is explaining only one small part of the Universes that exist; but know that within all other Universes there are also those planets, as you wish to call them, that do indeed give life...give birth to lives...upon their surface. It is important for you to keep this in mind as you think about those things that do exist, those beings that exist. Many have come to you as Beings of Light who can indeed impress upon you the importance of simply listening for those things that can affect you from outside your own Universe.

It is important that you be ready to accept that there are others who are coming to you, even now, through this which is the voice that will be able to help you as you go into a time when your services are needed upon the Earth. As that which is the population upon your Earth is concerned, you are few in numbers who have the wisdom and truth and knowledge that is going to help others through many experiences upon the Earth that they would not wish to see occur; but you are strengthened, you are blessed, and you are given responsibility. But you are not alone, for there are others who are of like mind upon the Earth. There are others who do have the opportunity and the ability to come from outside the Earth to be with you at this time. Do NOT doubt that they are here, for indeed WE ARE HERE. We come in a spiritual aspect, but we come with the ability to communicate with those of you who are willing to open your hearts and minds and allow it to be so. We who come would simply advise that you ask daily for the guidance and protection of those who are in your care upon the Earth...those who come as your Guardians of Spirit. We would ask that you allow your Spirit Within to guide you. Be at Peace. Know that this one has come with much Love and does come to help you through these times in which you live upon the Earth. Know that this one will come again. Be at Peace.

JEY returns and would ask you simply to continue to be at peace and in a time of meditation, and allow the message that has been given to you to become a part of your thinking during the days ahead. Go now in Peace. Know that JEY will talk in the days to come. Go now in Love. AMEN
