(Before this message was give to us, we had reviewed and discussed a message dated March 9, 1991)

JEY is here and does come now in the will of the Creator, and does come with Love to be in your midst. It is important that each of you have gathered here at this time for you indeed have been given information that was necessary for your life upon the Earth Plane at this very time. Know that as you have opened your heart to those things of Truth that have been given to you, you will find that in the days to come that your Spirit Within will give you the guidance that you need. Accept this for indeed it is Truth; and JEY has come to you many times in the past through the voice of this one in order to give assistance to many who are seeking Truth upon the Earth Plane.

This journey that you have undertaken has been one of necessity, for you have been led into those things of Truth in order that your Spirit may become a guiding force for you in this life in order that you may be mentally enlightened and in order that you may be physically able to control those things that occur in your life. It is important for you to accept the Truth that is given and for you to be able to challenge all things that are given to you, with the understanding that you will be able to judge what is Truth simply by the action of the Spirit Within you.

It is known to those of us in the Spirit Realm that as those who are Spirit in Body seek to advance in their understanding of their relationship to the Creator while here on the Earth Plane, they are often led in the direction that will not be to their best interest for them. Throughout this journey, as decisions are made for life upon the Earth, there are those decisions that are made which will interfere with the Spirit Within. Yet, as that Spirit is given free reign within the lives of those who come seeking after Truth, know that Truth will be given....and that there is nothing that can interfere with the Spirit Within providing Truth while you are Spirit in Body.

We who are in the Spirit Realm come to serve you, to help you, in your journey upon the Earth. As you made the decision to once again return to life in body upon the Earth Plane, it was known that you made that decision in a loving manner, know that it was necessary for your Spirit to undergo the experiences that are now taking place as it resides in your body as Spirit in Body. You are here for a purpose! You are here to fulfill a need. Know that the need is for your Spirit, not that which is your physical body but for your Spirit! You have been advised to open your hearts and your minds to the Truths that can be given to you. You have been advised to attempt to keep your physical self in a time of strength in order that you may be able to fulfill your purpose upon the Earth. And you have asked that you be able to control the mental activity in order that it may not interfere with your Spiritual growth. You have an opportunity now not only to allow your Spirit Within to grow and experience, but you have an opportunity to help others to understand the value of allowing the Spirit Within them to grow, to learn, to progress while Spirit in Body upon the Earth at this time.

You are experiencing, as a mental and physical person, much upon Earth at this time that does cause stress, that does cause disease within the body; and you are aware that those things can impact your physical and mental abilities. What you need to allow at this time is for your Spirit Within to become your guiding force. Do not let outside experiences that affect your mental being and your physical being to become the guiding force in your life. Know that through all aspects of your life, the Spirit Within you is the focus of your very being upon the Earth. It is NOT that which is your mental and physical aspect that should be your focus, but rather that which is the Spirit Within you.

In order for that focus to be attained in your life upon the Earth, know that you have to be one who is seeking after Truth, who is seeking after the will of the Creator for your life at this time. You have been told many times that you are here for a purpose. You have made the decision to be here; and you will fulfill that purpose. There are many upon the Earth Plane at this very time who are suffering in many ways, physically and mentally, because of decisions that have been made which affect their lives...not only by themselves but the decisions made by others in their lives, whether it would be someone who has rule over their lives upon the Earth or by others who simply come into their presence and make decisions that would not be positive for your Spirit while in Body.

There are so many who are in a time of suffering. You must understand that as they suffer, the Spirit Within them does not progress. Yet, it does have the opportunity to once again know what it is to be a Spirit in Body that cannot live in an atmosphere that will not provide the experience for which it came. Know that every Spirit, when it does make the decision to return to life in body upon the Earth Plane, has great expectations. At the same time, the Spirit is well aware of the adversity that it must encounter as it lives as Spirit in Body. It is well known to the Spirit before it arrives as a tiny baby upon the Earth that it will undergo much in the way that will be counter to what it would like to have happen upon the Earth for the benefit of the Spirit.

You who are here are strong in Spirit. You are strong in your desire to do that which is the will of the Creator for your life upon the Earth. You have the ability to daily make those decisions that will not alter your path upon the Earth, except that it will strengthen your willingness to allow the Spirit Within you to be the guiding force. You have that ability. All you need to do is simply ask for the guidance and protection that you need each day of your life, and then simply say that you will allow the Spirit Within to guide you each day during your time upon the Earth. Know that you who are here are much loved by those of us who are in Spirit. We come to give you the assistance that you need because it is the will of our Creator that we do so. You have not been left alone upon the Earth. You are given much assistance, much guidance, and so it shall continue. We ask that you be open to the Truth that can be given through your own Spirit Within and to the guidance that can be given to you by your Guardian of Spirit as well, for indeed you can receive it.

At this time JEY comes to ask that you would allow one other to come to be in your midst. Know this one has been with you before and does seek to communicate with you at this time. Simply remain in a time of meditation and allow this one to communicate with you.

AMEN! This one comes to communicate with you, and has communicated with you in the past, and does again come to identify as one who does come in the will of the Creator and does come with Love, and will simply provide for you the identifying name that has been given in the past....and that is that this one comes as one known to you as ALLA.

ALLA has served throughout the life of the one who is serving as instrument as a Spirit Teacher. ALLA has been known to this one in a past life and will advise you that AS you hear these words being spoken through the voice of this one, ALLA will tell you that what is to be said at this time does come as Truth and you must understand that ALLA speaks Truth because it is necessary at this time, and that ALLA does come in the will of the Creator and as a result must speak Truth to you!

ALLA has been on a Spiritual Journey in past lives, even as you are on a Spiritual Journey at this time. ALLA was known during a past life upon the Earth as one who resided and who was known to those of you who seek after Christianity in this life, as one who was a follower of the Christ at that time. Allow ALLA to say this. As you seek to understand more fully those things that are written in what you call your Scriptures at this time, you must understand that those things that were written were not written for the purpose of becoming Scripture; but they were written for the purpose of enlightening those who were known in the realm as this time as those who were Jewish people who were following after that which was known to them as their scriptures at that time. Those things which we who were followers of Jesus wrote were simply written in that light! They were written from the viewpoint of those known at that time as the Jewish people in order to enlighten those who were still seeking after an understanding of the one who was their Creator. They had not yet learned fully of that which was the Creator. And so as you seek after Truth at this time, open your hearts and your minds...not only as you look within that which you call your Scriptures, but in that which is given to you through this which is a channel, an instrument that can be used to bring further Truths from those of us who are in the Spirit Realm.

We who have gone before you and lived in body on the Earth Plane in the past return to the Spirit Realm to find that much we had written and much that we had told was not from that which we sought to tell in Truth, but was simply often that which we found within our own thoughts to tell that would maybe encourage others who were seeking after a fuller understanding of the relationship with our Creator that would help them find their way. We were often incorrect in what we had written, but often we were able to not only understand the Truth but to bring the Truth to others at that time.

We do not come at this time to force you to accept anything that is given to you through that which you have known as Scriptures or through this which is given through the voice that is being used. But we encourage you to allow your Spirit to lead your life, to help you to understand what is Truth with regard to what your needs are at this time. TRUTH IS NEVER CHANGING...BUT YOUR NEEDS ARE CHANGING, and you must be able to respond to that which your Spirit would have you understand and to believe at this time. You are indeed Spirit of the Creator. That Spirit Within you is able to lead you through this lifetime. It has led you through many lifetimes. It will lead you through many to come. But understand that you must have the ability to draw from the Spirit that which is necessary for you to understand at any given time upon the Earth Plane. ALL Truth is there within that Spirit. ALL Truth is not necessary for you to know ... and this one would emphasize the word ALL in your language. It is not necessary for you to know ALL things at any one time. What is necessary for you to know is ALL THAT WILL BENEFIT YOUR SPIRIT AT ANY ONE TIME as it approaches your mental and your physical self to help you through this journey upon the Earth. You who are here at this time are Spirits of great beauty and great worth. Your Spirit has traveled a long way through many lifetimes to be here on this spot in this body which is known as YOU in this lifetime. Your physical and mental selves have needs at this time. You are individual in that respect. Allow your Spirit Within you to serve that need at this time, and ask that the Spirit Within you would be able to guide your thinking and your physical aspect in order that you may be able to fulfill the need of that Spirit by your actions and your thinking in this lifetime upon the Earth. This is vitally important for you....that even though you are here as one in purpose, you are here as a separate mental and physical being; and that which is needed to fulfill the life of that physical and mental entity upon the Earth can be helped by the Spirit that is within. The Spirit will have the help that it needs to give to your physical and mental self.

This is important for you to understand...that you do not come here, each of you, with Spirit that has the exact same needs at the same time. You are each on an individual Spiritual Journey. You are living in an individual physical and mental body. Allow the Spirit to receive the help it needs to get you through this life and to understand the strengthening of that particular Spirit as well. You are blessed at this time in that you have made the Journey that you are now undergoing. Allow others to know of your journey in that they may undertake such a journey as well. You are not one who is sworn to secrecy about your Spiritual Journey, but you are one that can allow the Spirit Within you to exude the Love of the Creator for each of you. That is one purpose that you have upon the Earth.

And this one would come now simply to give thanks for the opportunity to be with you and will allow you to know that there is still much joy ahead for you to experience in this life! Accept it and give thanks and praise to our Creator. Go now in Love.

JAY returns and would ask that you simply give thanks that that one has been allowed to be in your midst; and know that as you accept and internalize the message that has been given to you, you will feel great joy, great peace and great comfort as you accept the Love of the one who is our Creator and allow it to become a permanent fixture and part of your life in the days ahead of you. Go now in Love and remain in Peace. AMEN.
