

MESSAGE FROM JEY, 6-10-01

JEY is here and is in your midst and does come in the will of the Creator. It is important that you who are here continue in a state of meditation, for indeed that which is important to you can be given at this time through the voice of this one.

Allow JEY to say this to each of you who are here. You have had given to you many things at this time that seem to be of importance to each of you. JEY would ask you to take from this time of meeting those things that have had great importance to you and to simply meditate on those things in the days to come. As you are aware, there are times in your life when each of you have a need for varying kinds of information and varying kind of guidance; and JEY would say to you that at this time that has been so in this group. JEY would ask you then to be alert each time you discuss those topics during a time of meeting and that you be aware that your thoughts are important; and as you have questions others within the group may be able to help you in their own discernment of Truth with regard to the question which you may have. And so JEY would ask you to be willing to take with you from this meeting those things that have been discussed as they have related to your needs during this time of meeting.

JEY is here and does come with Truth for you at this time, and does come in an attitude of being able to give you the Love that is important for each of you at this time. JEY comes from the Spirit Realm in order to be the Guardian of Spirit for the one which uses voice, but also for that which has been known as Gatekeeper for OMEGA. And all of you who are known upon the Earth Plane as OMEGA have a need to know that as JEY comes it is always in the will of the Creator and does come to give that which is Truth.

You must understand that when we who are in Spirit come to say that we come to you in the will of our Creator that this must be so, for we who are in Spirit cannot attest to that Truth unless it is indeed Truth. We are aware that we have an allegiance to that which is the Creator of all things, even as you do; but we who are in Spirit are well aware of the Truths that are given to you and we cannot side step that which is the Truth in order to give you that which may or may not have been the thought of the Spirit. We cannot allow that to be so. We have to come with Truth and we must give you that Truth and only that Truth. We may at some time feel that what we have in our own thinking may be important, too, but that is not what is necessary for you who are Seekers of Truth at this time, for indeed you are Seeker of Truth. We who are in Spirit understand that and we come to honor that at all times when we are in your midst.

Know that what JEY has to tell you at this time does indeed bear the imprint of Truth, and so JEY comes to give you this information.

There is at this time upon the Earth much unrest among ALL of mankind...not just in those countries which you see at war but also within those countries which you assume to be at peace. But know that within every country within all the inhabitants of that country in which you live and in which others live there is a time of unrest among many. There is a time of distrust among many. And throughout the Earth it is the same within the countries that make up the Earth. And through that distrust and that unrest there is much that is disturbing to those of us who are in the Spirit Realm, for it does not bode well for all who are here in this country and other countries.

When there comes a time of great unrest and great distrust, know that there is then a time for that which is evil to flourish. Those things of evil thought, those things of evil planning...there is a time for such things to flourish. And all of these thoughts and distrust have come about through many years of coming to fruition upon your Earth. It is now taking shape and you will find that there will be many things happening within your own country as you see them happening now that will indeed bring great chaos within your own civilization, within your own country. It is at this time that you need to have clear thinking and cool heads as you continue to see these events occur upon the Earth. It is not a time for you to lose faith in your fellow man, but rather to be able to talk with those in your own community, your own areas with a coolness of thought. JEY is aware that often times mankind tends to by-pass the heeding of Spirit, and so it is that this will occur much within the land in which you live. This is a time when mankind needs to seek further for guidance of Spirit and for the will of the Creator, not only for your life but for the life of all mankind upon the Earth.

As you see that which is hatred building among many people upon the Earth, hatred against each other, hatred within their own peoples for hatred of other peoples, know that this is not in the will of the Creator. And so as you live upon the Earth at this time and you continue to think about that which is chaos, there is indeed chaos upon the Earth. And so as you find more and more that which would be hatred toward others within your own area and within your own country, know that this will bring about more and more distrust and a time of mankind hurting, killing, hating each other within the Earth. It is difficult for JEY to talk about things of this type occurring within your own country, but know that Truth must be faced and you who are here now have the ability to face Truth without being caught up in those things which are happening.

And so as you send forth your prayers for others upon the Earth, consider those within your own community who seem to be in a time of committing those things which are not in the will of the Creator. Know that throughout the Earth this is what is occurring. Mankind is being caught up in a time of chaos, and this chaos begins at what some might say ‘ your own doorstep, your own community’; and as this chaos then becomes more entrenched in a community and is spread through your land, you can be sure it occurring throughout the Earth in which you live.

And so JEY would ask you at this time to seek within self to be at peace with self first, and to seek after the will of the Creator first in order that you may be strengthened in your own resolve. And then as you have an opportunity to deal with others in your community, those with whom you socialize or those with whom you work, know that you must be able to exude only that which is Spirit and that which is Truth and Peace; and through that you will be able to touch many others.

There is to come a time upon the Earth where all the distrust and all the hatred will be brought to a point of explosion, and you must be aware of this....that indeed this is part of the chaos that will occur upon the Earth. You have been warned by others that chaos is coming, and we who are in Spirit have talked to you about this. Know that chaos can take many faces, many forms. As you are aware, that which is the Earth changes are now taking place.

That which is changing of your own climate is now taking place. These things are disturbing to many who are on the Earth, and that disturbance takes on a form many times of being enacted by others through that which will be distasteful deeds occurring upon the Earth.

JEY does not come to frighten you but rather to bring to you this which can occur and would ask you to be even stronger in your faith, in your beliefs, in your courage and in your willingness to do that which is the will of the Creator in times ahead. You are special; you have chosen to be where you are at this time and to be doing those things that you are now engaged in. But JEY would ask you to be strengthened more each day in resolve, and know that as you ask for the help you need from the Spirit Realm, it shall be heard and shall be given to you. You are not alone in this Journey which you have undertaken. We who are in Spirit are here to help and would ask you to simply be strengthened in your resolve at this time. And so JEY comes at this time to give thanks for each of you who are here and for each one who is known as OMEGA upon the Earth. We are aware of that which is your ability and that which is your strength, and we simply ask you to become more strengthened in your resolve to follow through with that for which you have come to Earth to do at this time.

And so JEY comes now to simply....as JEY would say.....salute you who are here and all who OMEGA, for you have made a choice and you have come to be here at this time by choice. Know that you will be able to accomplish that for which you came to Earth. Be at Peace with this. Know that JEY has not come to frighten you but rather simply to warn you of that which can happen upon the Earth Plane. Go now in Love. Know that we who are in Spirit surround you daily with our Love and with our Guidance. And as it is the will of the Creator, all of us who serve as Guardians of Spirit do indeed enhance your life each day in order that you may be able to move forward with your conviction that you indeed are following after the will of the Creator, and your resolve to do only that which is good and that which is right in the view of the Creator of All Things. Go now in Love and be at Peace. AMEN
