

MESSAGE FROM JEY 10-21-01

JEY is here and does come at this time in order to communicate with those of you who are here. It is well known to those of us in the Spirit Realm as you meet at this time of OMEGA that you do have concerns for that which is known upon the Earth in the way of such horror that is taking place. JEY would ask that you be open now to hear Truth and Good in order that it may be given to you through the voice of this one.

JEY would allow you to know again that JEY does come in the will of the Creator and does come as Gatekeeper for OMEGA, for it is that duty, that responsibility that JEY has, that does allow those of you who are here meeting as OMEGA to receive information that can be given. And so JEY comes now with much thanks that there is an opportunity once again for JEY to communicate with you.

It is important at this time upon the Earth that you reconsider that which has been given to you down through the many times that you have been meeting... those things that have indeed the aspect of information relating to what is happening upon the Earth at this time. You are aware, of course, that you have been through many months, many years that OMEGA has been formed and you have been preparing for those things that come as an 'upset' upon the Earth. In other words, that which has been said to you to be chaos. It is important for you to know once again that indeed that which you see as chaos has been occurring upon the Earth for much of the time that you have been meeting. As you meet at this time, you see more of an explosion of chaos taking place upon the Earth. You who are OMEGA are prepared for that which is taking place. You are those who are of strength not only of Spirit but within the emotional self and the physical self. You have now the opportunity to give that which has been taught to you---and that is an opportunity to help others during this time.

There are so many ways that mankind may help another upon the Earth; but often it is simply an opportunity for you to be in touch with another to ease their fears, to ease the doubts that they have about their life upon the Earth at this time. And so as you meet with others each day of your life, you are to share that which is an optimistic outlook on life upon the Earth, for you have now the knowledge, you have the ability, you understand Truth, and you are aware that what you can share with others can indeed make a difference in their life. You do not need to dwell upon a negative aspect of life today, but look upon that which can be given to you through the will of the Creator. If mankind, upon the Earth and throughout the Earth, would simply seek for the will of the Creator to be done upon the Earth, it can indeed come to pass. But know that there seems to be so much hatred being given upon the Earth today that there is little time for mankind to think about the will of the Creator; and that would, of course, be Love for each other--not hatred for each other.

It is with great joy that JEY can think of what the Earth would be like for all people if mankind could simply create LOVE for not only his fellowman in the area in which he lives but for all upon the Earth.

It is known that as mankind continues to use that which they call 'their religion' as a basis for hatred upon the Earth, there will be no peace among man; for indeed each one upon the Earth who does abide by some form of religion... they are very strict about their beliefs but they also will not tolerate any adjustment to what they believe, or to look upon others upon the Earth for having a belief that will also coincide with their beliefs. It is important that you be able to send forth your thoughts to all of mankind, in prayer, in meditation, in order that they will begin to open their hearts and allow the Love of the Creator for all mankind to be a part of them as well. Simply because those of you who are here have one thought about religion does not mean that there are other religions upon the Earth which do not have a similar thought to yours. It does not make a difference upon the Earth as to what mankind believes, but what mankind is doing with this life that has been provided for them upon the Earth does make a difference. Each one who lives as Spirit-in-Body at this time is here for a purpose. Many have yet to find their way and their purpose; and that purpose is to learn to serve the Creator of All Things through the actions of their life... and many have not found their way. Many are still seeking after the way they feel about a certain thing, the way their own mental self feels about a certain thing or way of life. They have not sought after the will of the Creator for their life.

This is that YOU as OMEGA are about! You have sought after and you have found the will of the Creator for your lives. Would it be that all mankind upon the Earth could indeed have found the way that you have found. You who are OMEGA have been able to open your hearts and your minds to seek for Truth. It is so important that all mankind would be able to do this... to seek for the Truth that can be given to them if they would allow the Spirit Within them to control their thinking and to control their life.

As you who are here have found, life is much more to be desired because you have been able to seek within for that which is Truth. And you who have had the opportunity to find your way and have become OMEGA are well aware of the peace that this lifetime has brought to you as a result of that. You who are here are not without times within your life where you found that you would not wish to undergo all those things that have occurred to you in this lifetime. You have many experiences that have not been positive in your life; but your footsteps have led you to find the will of the Creator for your life. You made decisions and you are abiding by those decisions because you now know what is important in your lifetime upon the Earth.

And so JEY would ask you now that each day when you are in a time of prayer and meditation that you would simply ask that all of mankind would become Seekers of Truth, that they would open their hearts and minds to receive the will of the Creator for their life. It is so important for the outcome on the Earth at this time that mankind will be able to find peace and love, for without those it would appear that the Earth and all of mankind upon the Earth will be engaged in such a struggle in order to try to find those who will be able to control everyone upon the Earth. That is what this struggle is about upon the Earth at this time. It is a matter of controlling the Earth and all who live upon the Earth.

Those of you who live in what you call a "free world"... a government that seeks to allow mankind to make decisions for their life... you are blessed; but there are many who do not have this opportunity, and little can you understand what life is like for those who are so totally controlled in their lifetime. _those who are not allowed to make decisions for their lives but must follow after the will of one who becomes so strong that they can demand allegiance from everyone who lives under their control. This is not the will of our Creator for mankind! Our Creator would wish that all would have an opportunity to live a life of freedom, one that would allow them to search for Truth and to seek within for the knowledge that can be given to them_ .an understanding of life as it should be.

JEY does not come now simply to give you information; but JEY comes to urge you to become active in your prayer life each day, and in your meditation each day... sending forth that which is necessary to help the Earth. Each one who will receive this message must take time during the days of their lives in order to spend time in prayer and meditation, and allow all others who come into their presence to know that this is so necessary for them. JEY would ask you to take from this place this message: You must live in a time of peace and love. You must share this knowledge with others who are upon the Earth. And you must be aggressive in reaching out to others and share this Truth as you know it, for you need only to tell others that if they indeed do honor the Creator of them all, they will reach out to be strengthened in Love for their fellow man. Indeed you do show honor for the one who is our Creator as you allow that to be so.

And we who are in the Spirit Realm come to be in prayer with those of you who are OMEGA, and we will seek to strengthen you each day in your ability to help others along the way as they struggle to find Love and Peace during this time of chaos upon the Earth. Just recall that you have been warned over and over that you would be able to serve during a time of chaos. You are seeing chaos upon the Earth at this time. You have agreed to serve during a time of chaos. So be it. You have now arrived at that time. May you be at peace in your resolve now to so serve the Creator of all things that you will in turn be able to help those Spirits who live in body upon the Earth, for every Spirit that lives in every body upon the Earth is OF the Creator and does seek to find a way to influence the body in which it lives. May it be so, and may you be able to send forth your prayers with the energy that can go to all who are upon the Earth. May the Creator of us all bless you in your resolve and in your life as you live in this time upon the Earth. Go now in Peace and be in a state of Love, not only for each other but for all of mankind. AMEN.
