

JUNE 12, 2002

JEY is here and does indeed have the opportunity at this time to be in your midst and to hear those things which you have been discussing. As you have gathered here there has been a purpose for this time of togetherness. You have had the opportunity to deal with those aspects of your own understanding in regard to the relationship that you have not only with the Creator of All That Is but also to those who are Spirit-in-Body. Know that as you have had an opportunity to think over much that has been give to you in the past, you have now come to a conclusion that indeed you ARE important in the Earth Plane at this time. Accept that! Do not be fearful of all that has taken place in your life. Each of you have changed in your understanding, in your knowledge, in your ability to incorporate that which is the Spiritual Aspect of YOU into your everyday living.

It is important that you be receptive to all that your Spirit Within can help you understand, for know that as that Spirit Within you is OF the Creator, it does indeed have the ability, it does have the will, it does have the power to share with you much understanding if you will allow it to be so. It is for the good of your own self and for all of mankind that they would allow the Spirit Within now at this time upon the Earth to come forth and to be in control of their thinking. Mankind is on the verge now of moving to a higher stage of development if they will only ALLOW it to be so. Of course, mankind, through his innate ability to think and to achieve much from the mental self, has been able to cause many things to be put into a context of being developed. However, they have long ago forgotten the Creator of All Things...that they should seek after the will of the Creator before they come to a stage of developing much that has been developed.

JEY would have you look at this... and that is the instruments of destruction that have been developed by mankind upon the Earth. You have seen not only the weapons used in destroying mankind and those things used for their habitation; but you have seen now great destruction brought about by the will power through those who have been able to destroy great buildings, using what would have been a mode of transportation. It is now within the minds of many who reside upon the Earth that these things of destruction can be used in many ways through many avenues upon the Earth, by simply using those things that you take for granted in everyday life.

We ask you still not to be fearful! Know that those who are now in a time of achieving destruction through those things that their minds have been able to devise and then their hands to develop, and you know that there are many who are dying as a result of that. But death is not always to be feared! Death is simply that avenue that is necessary for the Spirit to escape from a body upon the Earth and return to the Spirit Realm. We would advise you NOT to indulge in a fear of dying at the hands of those who develop instruments of destruction. Rather, you are to concentrate on their Spirit being able to simply promote that which would be Peace and Joy upon the Earth. Allow your mental self daily to send forth prayers for those upon the Earth that need the prayers that would guide their ability to choose to construct things of Love and Beauty and Peace rather than things of hatred and destruction.

At this time JEY is aware of your need for this which would simply be a time again of being in meditation, of receiving a blessing from those in the Spirit Realm, and with the knowledge that you are indeed OF the Creator and that you are doing the work that the Creator would have you do upon the Earth. What JEY would like you to understand at this time is that when we who are in Spirit come to pronounce a blessing upon you, we come in the will of our Creator. You are in need of many blessings during this lifetime upon the Earth; but know that we come not to bless you in order for you to overcome fear. We come to bless you because you are allowing the Spirit Within you to lead you in your actions and in your thinking. And as we bless you, we give impetus to that which is your Spirit. We give strength to that which is your Spirit in order that it may overcome the leading of your mental and physical self. And so as you are blessed, know that it is a blessing upon your Spirit and that your Spirit then can lead you into those directions that will help you to more fully accomplish that for which you came to Earth.

The Spirit Within you is one of such great beauty. You can hardly have the ability to imagine the beauty of Spirit until you once again return to the Spirit Realm. If you could envision at this time in your life simply that which is Joy and that which is Love, those things are being expressed in Spirit as they are in the Spirit Realm. If you can simply imagine the beauty of the sunlight as it reacts on little raindrops that fall upon the Earth, and see the sunlight being reflected from those raindrops, perhaps that would help you to understand the beauty of Spirit. You are aware of some aspects of beauty upon the Earth. There are many things that can be used to describe the beauty of Spirit in the Spirit Realm; but JEY is aware that you can, through your own mental self, look upon those things that bring great joy upon the Earth, those things of great beauty, and then simply transfer that to an understanding of what Spirit is like in the Spirit Realm.

And so we would ask you simply to concentrate on that, trying to envision the beauty of the Spirit Within you. We who are in Spirit can indeed experience that which is your own Spirit, and we have the ability to know the beauty and the joy of Spirit. We simply want you to be able to experience that, too, as your Spirit is enclosed in the physical body. It is the joy of those of us who are in Spirit to have the opportunity to come and communicate with you; and we would ask you again, as you are in a time of rest, a time of sleep, that you invite your Spirit to simply take leave of your body and do those things that will help others understand their own Spiritual nature. As your Spirit travels out to others who are Spirit-in-Body, indeed during their time of sleep your Spirit can work with them. And as you have placed names in your circle during this time of meeting, know you are simply asking that your Spirit will be able to go to them, to comfort them, to attempt to heal them through that which is the Spiritual aspect.

We who are Spirit rejoice that you have the knowledge, that you have the opportunity to allow your Spirit to escape from your body as you sleep, and yet return again when the mission has been accomplished. This is a Joy that not everyone upon the Earth Plane has the ability to accomplish or to know about. And so JEY would simply ask you to be about your Father's business. Know that the Creator of Us All has allowed you this time upon the Earth simply to be that which you are... to be a part of this which is known to you as OMEGA. The Creator of All Things does indeed have the ability then to allow you to know the Joy of Spirit upon the Earth. You have the ability now to do that.

Be at Peace. Know that JEY has come with much love to you, and would ask you to allow your Spirit to be the controlling aspect of the remainder of your life upon the Earth. Allow your Spirit, as you are in a time of sleep, to go to others, to help them to enjoy the same aspect of Joy within the Spirit. You can do this! It is simply a matter of allowing it to be so.

And so JEY will take time, at this time, to bring you a blessing that will further strengthen your Spirit; and JEY would let you know that it is the will of the Creator of All Things that you be able to have this blessing. Continue in your meditation as JEY brings this message to you.

Open now your hearts. Allow your Spirit to come forth. Allow this message now of Hope and Love and Continuing Strength to be given to your Spirit. That which is your Spirit is OF the Creator. Attempt to envision that which is the glorious Spirit, the glorious Energy, the glorious Strength of the Creator of All Things. Allow your Spirit to become one again with the Creator, just for this short time. And as that Spirit then becomes one with the Creator, in this short time it will receive the blessing that will again make it more powerful within your physical body. Allow it to be so. Allow your Spirit to go forth. It is safe. It will experience once again being one with the Creator. It will know the Joy, it will know the Peace, it will know the Understanding that is necessary for it in this lifetime as a Spirit-in-Body. Simply be still. Be at Peace with this. Your Spirit will return with renewed Strength, renewed Joy, a renewed feeling of Peace. And it will once again be in your physical body able to do those things that it came to Earth to do. You will not need to know fear. You will not need to know that this Spirit Within you will have to be subservient any more to anything except that which is the Creator.

You have now experienced a beautiful gift. Your Spirit is returning to your physical self. It comes back renewed. All things negative that have occurred upon the Earth Plane as it has inhabited your body are being erased. Your Spirit is returning to your body. Know that you have been given a gift of much beauty and joy. Give thanks to the Creator of all Things at this time. Be at Peace.

JEY has been given the ability to lead you through this gift-giving that has been yours to receive. Go now in Love. Cherish this gift. Cherish this time. Cherish the Spirit with you, for you are blessed. Go now in Peace. AMEN.
