JEY is here, and it is known that those of you who are here have indeed opened your heart to those things of truth which you have just read. It is the joy of JEY to be able to come and communicate with those of you who are OMEGA, for it is within that which is this group that meets here regularly that JEY has the opportunity to discuss those things that are of importance to each of you, and even as you meet here at this time and have the opportunity to discuss the Truths that have been given to you, so it is throughout all of OMEGA, that they, too, have had the opportunity to receive the information and to discuss such information.

There is at this time one thing that JEY needs to impress upon your thinking, and that is this: You have the opportunity now not only to make that which the spirit within you the point of much discussion, but also you have the opportunity now to be strengthened in order to help others to be strengthened in Spirit.

There is ongoing upon the earth at this time an awakening of those things of a deep Spiritual nature, and it is important that all of mankind be able to allow their Spirits to lead them, that all of mankind may become seekers of Truth, even as you have. Know that as the earth now has the opportunity to evolve further into that which is the will of the Creator, those who inhabit the Earth must indeed become more strengthened with regard to Spirit.

The Earth is undergoing a change, even as you have been told would occur. There is much occurring upon the Earth physically that does indeed bring about many disasters, but you are aware that this, too, has a purpose. The Earth is being cleansed, and even though you still find that there is much taking place upon the Earth in the way of violence, there is much cleansing taking place as well.

Be willing to open your hearts and your minds to the Truth of this aspect of what is happening upon the Earth. You do not need to be fearful. You need only to be in a time of prayer and meditation each day in order that your strength of Spirit may be readily available to you, in order for you to be guided in those things that you need to be able to do.

It is the understanding of those of us who are in Spirit that the Earth plane has now an opportunity to begin anew that which is the will of the Creator. So much has taken place through the actions of mankind down through the many eons that Earth has been populated that have been a deterrent to that which is the Spiritual aspect of the Earth.

It was created by the will of the Creator, and it was meant to be that which is a Peaceful and Beautiful Planet on which mankind was to reside. Indeed, it did become a Beautiful Planet, and it does still resound with that which is Beauty, but, know that mankind has done much that does, indeed, inhibit the continuing Beauty of this Planet upon which you live.

If you would but wait for that which is the guidance of your Spirit each day before you take action, regardless of what action might be, you will know that your thoughts then are guided by your Spirit, that your speech and your actions are guided by your Spirit! Wait upon that which is the Creator each day of your life, and that is spoken to you and through you by your Spirit, for if the Spirit within you is OF the Creator, indeed, you will receive that which is the guidance that you need through your Spirit.

It is not the joy of those of us who are in the Spirit realm to know that very many upon the earth do not have that which is the ability to allow their Spirit within to guide them. There are many who do not wait upon that which is the guidance of their Spirit. There are many who do wait upon the guidance of their Spirit, and those of you who are OMEGA are among those who have the knowledge and who have the opportunity to allow your Spirit within to guide you.

Be not fearful of where your Spirit will lead you, for as it is known to you, that which is OF the Creator will not err with regard to that which is action! If you take the time to spend time each day in meditation, and in listening to the guidance of your Spirit, you will know that all that you do is in the will of the Creator of all things!

And as you attempt then, to visualize that which is your Creator, simply think upon that which is LIGHT and LOVE. If you can picture LOVE, you can picture LIGHT, for LOVE indeed is that which is LIGHT that can surround you each day, not the light that you usually think of as artificial light, no. That which is LOVE cannot be limited to that which is artificial light upon the Earth. LIGHT which comes from the Creator is a thing of Beauty, and you can envision self being engulfed in that LIGHT each day of your life. Know that you are guided by that LIGHT, you are enveloped by it, and thus, you feel the LOVE, the unconditional LOVE of the Creator as you allow yourself to be simply enveloped by the LOVE.

If you are aware of that which appears to be what you would call a cocoon of that which could be a tiny insect upon the earth, know that you can see yourself enveloped, then, in a cocoon of LOVE, which then is a cocoon of LIGHT. You are daily enveloped in this as you go about your life's work upon the Earth. You are each aware that you do have demands to meet in the physical aspect. You do indeed meet those demands, but know that around and in all of this are the demands of the Spirit, and that Spirit is guided and protected by that which is the cocoon of LOVE, the cocoon of LIGHT, that is surrounding you every day of your life.

With this in mind, you can understand why your need to resist fear is important. Fear can inhibit that which is the LIGHT that surrounds you each day of your life. If you allow fear to rule, that which is the LIGHT and LOVE of the Creator does not take on the role that is needed for you in this life. And so, this is not saying to you that you throw all caution to the wind, no, that is not what is important. What IS important is that you rely upon is the Spirit Within you to guide you, and with that in mind, that you picture yourself as being enveloped by that which is the LOVE and the LIGHT of the Creator.

And so it is that each day of your life can be spent in Joy. It can be spent in helping others without fear of contradiction. It can be spent as you enjoy this, which is seeking after the Truth, and as you enjoy those who are in your Love in your Life. You are blessed in many ways. You are blessed in that your Spirit has been strong enough to guide you to seek after the Truth that can be received by that which is your Spirit and that which is your physical and mental self. You have been given many blessings! Count those blessings! Rejoice in those blessings, for indeed, you have been those who are greatly blessed and who are very special upon the Earth Plane!

JEY now would ask you to reconsider all that you have read during this time of meeting, for there is much in that reading that you need simply to let your mental self digest. There is much that will become a guiding light for you in your days to come, and JEY would ask you to read and to allow yourself to understand all that is written. *

And so at this time JEY comes once again to give thanks to each of you who are here, to bless you with LOVE, to bless you with the knowledge that you are seekers of TRUTH, and you are finding that TRUTH. And JEY would at this time, too, with the knowledge that this message too, will be sent out to others who are OMEGA, JEY would ask each of them to feel the blessing that comes with the reading of these messages that are sent to each of them, and that they, in turn, share those messages with others.

Be at PEACE now. Know that JEY has come to you in this time of meeting with much LOVE, and with JOY, for JEY has seen that which has been the growth of each of you as you have sought after that which is TRUTH during these times of meeting. Go now in LOVE and be at PEACE with all that you are, and where you are, and all that you have learned. Go now in PEACE. Amen.
