

MESSAGE FROM JEY 2-03-2003

JEY is here and does come now in the will of the Creator. Know that JEY is in your midst and does come to you with much Love and much Joy, for this has indeed been a time of meeting where you have experienced joy and laughter. JEY does indeed give thanks for that. Also, JEY is much aware of the seriousness of this time of meeting, for JEY is concerned, too, about those things which are taking place upon the Earth.

Remember this! You have been reminded that your thoughts, your energy, your Spirit can go forth to help relate to others upon the Earth the importance of keeping in a time of Peace. It is known in the Spirit Realm that those things which you and others who are OMEGA have been practicing with regard to allowing your Spirit to move around the Earth have indeed borne fruit; and know that you must continue in that which you have begun.

At this time JEY would give thanks for those of you who are here. Indeed the Spirits within each of you shine forth brightly during this time upon the Earth. All who are OMEGA have an essence of beauty and light that does indeed shine forth from them. JEY gives thanks for that because as you have returned to Earth to fulfill the promise that you made in the Spirit Realm, you are finding that you are fulfilling the promise that was made so many years, and eons, ago. Know that as you are a group upon the Earth in body at this time, keep in mind that your promise was made during a time when you were in Spirit and you did come to Earth at this time as Spirit-in-Body to fulfill the promise that you made to be that which would be a force upon the Earth when there was a need for you to be here.

Allow JEY to say this, too. As you seek for guidance in your lives each day upon the Earth, know that you have only to give time to that which is meditation and to thought, simply thinking upon those things of Spirit that are of value to you. And allow those of us who are in the Spirit Realm and who serve you as Guardians of Spirit to come and be with you. You need only to invite us. We have an opportunity and a responsibility to you as we serve as your Guardians of Spirit. Even as JEY comes to serve as Guardian of Spirit for the one who is instrument, JEY has a responsibility to that Spirit which is within that body. JEY also has the responsibility of being Gatekeeper for this which is known as OMEGA. JEY takes that responsibility very seriously. JEY does give thanks that so many who are Spirit-in-Body have found their way to once again be together in Spirit and in Body upon the Earth, for it has been an awakening that has come about slowly during your lifetime. And yet you have been able to find your way.

JEY would say to those of you who are younger in body that you have indeed been blessed in that you have found your way to this group upon the Earth at an early stage in your lives. Others have indeed had to search much longer and have now found much joy in that which they are accomplishing upon the Earth.

JEY would ask each of you at this time, too, to remember those who are in your presence each day and spend forth a thought to them, that they may indeed feel peace in their heart. There is not anything of a positive nature that is accomplished when those who are Spirit-in-Body send out negative thoughts about others upon the Earth. That must not be. It simply adds to the negative atmosphere upon the Earth. And so if you can say a prayer and send out a thought of Peace and Love to those who are in your presence each day in order that their thoughts may work toward that which is a positive solution to all that is occurring, know that it is important for them to receive your thoughts and your love, and to receive that feeling of peace that can be given to them.

As you are in a time of perhaps being drawn first from one side to another, know that is not to be a concern for you. What you are here for at this time is to be an instrument of Peace, an instrument of Love, an instrument of Joy to others with whom you come in contact upon the Earth. You are not here to judge! You are not here to form an opinion! You are to be here to serve as an instrument of good, an instrument of peace and love. And so it is that JEY would ask you to keep this in your heart, to keep this in your mind...that there is not a time for you upon the Earth to take sides with regard to one or the other opinion. Rather, just be open to Truth that can be given to you by those of us who come to you in Spirit. We do ask you to be mindful of the Spirit that is within you, for that Spirit has indeed guided you in this lifetime often times without your knowledge of that having occurred. Your Spirit will continue to guide you now that you have been open to Spirit, now that you have been open to Truth. It will continue to guide you.

You are blessed in that you have knowledge of that which gave birth to the Spirit Within you...that which is OF the Creator. And know that as the Creator of All Things 'stands guard', as you might say in your own language, over the Universes that exist, know that there is still the will of mankind, the free will of mankind that makes choices with regard to the decisions that they make. Your introduction into this which you call Truth, and which is known as Truth within the Spirit Realm, does give you an opportunity to interfere with negative decisions that are made. Rely on that which is your Spirit to guide you, to help you in sending forth those things of a positive nature...simply a thought of Love, a thought of Peace, a thought of Joy, and a thought that all mankind is ONE in this which is the Creation. It is important that you recognize each one who comes into your thought, who comes into your space during a time of life upon the Earth. Recognize each one as that which is the creation of the powerful Creator of All That Is.

And so with that in thought, JEY would simply ask you to go with this blessing.

We would ask, as we are in the Spirit Realm at this time....those of us who are in Spirit and those of us who come to you to help you in your lives as your Guardians of Spirit....we would ask that the Creator of All That Is would surround you with the Unconditional Love that is now known to each of you. You need not fear. You need not have a dread of that which is ahead for you. Simply know that if you put your faith in the Spirit Within you, put your faith in the Creator of All Things, know that all will be well with you. Give of your love to others. Give of your guidance to others as your Spirit would allow you to do. And may you, as you go back to those places to which you must travel to be in, to live, to work, may you know the Peace of the Creator now and in the days to come. May you be blessed with the Unconditional Love of our Creator, knowing that the Spirit Within you does rejoice that you are aware of that Unconditional Love.

JEY would ask you now to go in Love and to be at Peace with WHO you are and WHERE you are and WHAT YOU HAVE CHOSEN TO DO upon this Earth that will fulfill your purpose on Earth. Go now in Love. AMEN.
