

MESSAGE FROM JEY, 3-02-2003

JEY is here and does come at this time to be in your midst, and does come with Love and much concern for those of you who are here. JEY understands that which is occurring upon the Earth and can understand how it does affect the lives of each of you who are Spirit-in-Body.

Let JEY say this to you at this moment. There is to be no fear for you. You have been told that you are not to become victims of fear. And so it is that as you live in the presence of those of us who are your Guardians of Spirit, know that you are to be that which will be a beacon of Light and Love for all who come into your presence. And so if you show fear at any time, this will negate the good which the Light can show through you. You have an opportunity at this time upon the Earth to be one of great strength, one of great benefit to mankind, to all who come into your presence. You are not here just because it happened that you were born upon the Earth at this time. You came for a purpose. You are here to fulfill that purpose; and as you find your way, know that you are to be guided in your actions and in your thoughts.

Allow JEY to say further. As you have an opportunity to give a bit of information to others that may be ready to receive information that you have now been a recipient of, know that you will be guided in what you can say and what you can do at a particular time. You are not here simply to broadcast to the world. That is not your responsibility at this time! You are here to share your love, to share the guidance that you are asked to give, and to share that which is the Joy that you can spread to others by giving to them that which will benefit them in this lifetime. You are not to be in total control of all that occurs upon the Earth, all that occurs to others who are in your life. But you are to share with them that which is Truth that they can accept at a time in their lives. You are to share with them the happiness and joy that you feel which will bring to them a sense of joy and happiness.

You are not responsible for all that occurs upon the Earth! And yet you have the opportunity at this time as Spirit-in-Body simply to allow your Spirit to go and work with others. And as you have the thought of sharing with others, ask first that your Spirit be released to go and work with the Spirit of another who may be in your presence. Know that when that occurs, the mental self of that individual will indeed be prepared for that which you can share with them with regard to the Spiritual aspect of your life upon Earth.

Never forget that the Spirit Within you is strong. It is here for a purpose. It has the ability to go and to work with others. And so as you seek now to share with another that which is the knowledge that you have, ask first that your Spirit will work with the Spirit of that individual...or those individuals. It will be so if you ask that it be so! And so you need have no fear with regard to how others will feel about you. And why are you concerned about that? You are working in the will of the Creator! Do not have fear with regard to how others will feel about you. Simply know that as you do the will of God for YOUR life, that is what is important.

And so as the Creator of All That Is does indeed have complete control of life upon the Earth, you do not have that control. There are others upon the Earth who are, at the present time, seeking to do their will, and it is known that many have caused the elimination of life upon the Earth and do seek to control others by eliminating their life in body. And so you now have the opportunity to allow your Spirit, your thoughts, your energy to go to those who are willing to distribute that which is necessary for them to feel important upon Earth, and that is control through that which is overcoming the life of those who are in their care upon the Earth.

Do not be fearful of those. Know that you have an ability that is much stronger than theirs, and that is the strength of your Spirit, the strength of your prayers, and the knowledge that those of us in Spirit are in prayer with you. We are seeking to guide you, to comfort you, to direct you in all that you do upon the Earth. We are indeed Guardians of your Spirit, even as we have stated. As you have been told before, you are responsible for maintaining a healthy body in which your Spirit may reside. That is your responsibility. Know that you can maintain that healthy body in many ways; and you are aware of those ways that it can be done. Simply do not attempt to control the life of everyone else upon the Earth. That is not your responsibility. But send forth your thoughts. Allow your Spirit to go forth. Send forth your energy to help those who are in need. You do not NEED to use a bodily energy that will go to them and say "This is the way you need to believe; this is the way you need to behave."

Allow your Spirit, your thoughts, your energy to go forth in a positive managed way, in order that you may be able to help others who come into your presence, those who are in need.

At this time JEY would say this to those of you who are here as well. As you leave this place at this time, you will find that you will have a new energy, a new ability, a new thought that will help you in the days to come. Open your heart and your mind in order that this new ability may be given to you in order that you may become a more powerful instrument upon the Earth. Your Spirit has been given the energy that is necessary for it at this time. Your thoughts will be of a positive nature. You will be able to overcome all thoughts of a negative nature that enter at this time. Do not entertain such thoughts. You are not to be a negative person. You are a positive person.

Accept that. Know that your Spirit is living in a body upon the Earth at this time in a way that you little expected it would be living! Your body is not to be the controlling factor; rather your Spirit is to be the controlling factor. Accept that. Know that you will be guided in your thoughts and in your actions; but you must not hesitate to accept that your Spirit is being strengthened and is being prepared for that which is in your life in the time ahead.

Go now in Peace. Know that JEY will be with you. When there is a need you simply ask that JEY be present to help you. But also know that JEY is always here when you are gathered as OMEGA. JEY is indeed Gatekeeper for OMEGA. You are loved, you are guided, you are protected. And in the days ahead, you will be enlightened with regard to the Spiritual energy that you will be given. Go now. Be at peace. And don't forget that you are a messenger of Love and Peace and Joy upon this Earth on which you live. Go now in Love.
