

MESSAGE FROM JEY, 10-25-2003 DURING THE "OMEGA INGATHERING"

JEY is here. JEY comes now in the will of the Creator and does come with much love for those of you who are gathered here. Be at Peace. Know that indeed JEY is in the will of the Creator, and could not come otherwise. It is now a time for JEY to address those of you who are gathered here as OMEGA upon the Earth Plane.

JEY is aware that many of you have traveled far to be here, and JEY gives thanks for each one who has come to be here in this gathering at this time. JEY indeed saw that which is a time for those of you who are OMEGA to gather, and JEY will tell you that there will be many who will receive this message who are not here as a Spirit-in-Body at this time. Know that each one who reads the message will be blessed, even as you are being blessed at this time.

JEY comes to bring you a message that has a great bearing on that which you are doing in your lifetime, at this time. What JEY wishes to say to you is this. There is upon the Earth at this time much in the way of violence, much in the way of hatred that must be overcome if mankind is to progress upon the Earth again as mankind has done in the past. Know that since there is so much violence, mankind is being regressed instead of progressed at this time, for indeed hatred does not build love, hatred does not build spiritual growth; and it is through love and spiritual growth that mankind will be able to achieve all that he is destined to receive upon the Earth. We who are in the Spirit Realm at this time look with much sadness upon the Earth at all that is occurring. We do not wish to see so many perish due to hatred and violence upon the Earth, and we come to you at this time asking for your prayers to be added to those of ours who are in the Spirit Realm....that the violence may cease upon the Earth. We who are in the Spirit Realm do indeed pray, even as you do, for even though we are Spirit we still have the ability to pray and to seek for that which is the guidance of our Creator of All That Is. And so we would ask you to call upon the Spirit Within you to strengthen your resolve, to strengthen you in the mental aspect of self and the physical aspect of self, for indeed you who are in body, the reality of you, the Spirit of you which is in body, has the ability to use your mental self, to use your physical self...your eyes, your hands, all that can be used to accomplish things upon the Earth. You have the ability to use your voice to speak out for those things that are right and good upon the Earth.

We are not requiring you to get out and organize groups that would protest upon the Earth! That is not what we who are in Spirit is about. We are asking you to allow your Spirit to travel, to work with others who are Spirit-in-Body who need to be calmed with regard to the emotions that they have. We ask you to let your Spirit travel when you are in a time of sleep, to go throughout the Earth to work with those who are leaders of the nations upon the Earth. They are in need of help. Many have lost their way. They need your help. They need the help of the Spirit you have within you. You know Truth. You can then allow your Spirit to go to work with others upon the Earth. This is possible! Your Spirit Within you does retain a commitment to that body in which it is now residing, but it also can be freed to go and work with others who are Spirit-in-Body upon the Earth. This is not to be feared! This is a gift that can be given to others throughout the Earth! You are so blessed in that you have found your way upon the Earth, that you have found your way to a spiritual unfoldment in order that you may know the peace and joy that you now know. We would ask you to share that with others upon the Earth plane as you know it.

When we talk about this which is your Earth, we also ask that you begin to treat this Earth kindly. As you are aware, the Earth upon which you live is a changing, living entity even as you are. And so we would ask you to treat this Earth with loving care. There is much that occurs upon the Earth that destroys or changes much. Your Earth on which you live needs your love daily in order that it may be able to continue to nourish each of you who live as a Spirit-in-Body. And with this in mind, allow JEY to say this as well. As you continue with this meeting which you are now attending, you will find that there will be those things that do interest you and which touch your own heart. We would ask you to share with others as you have those things to share which will touch the hearts of all others as well. We who are in Spirit are here in your midst. If you could but see us, you could reach out and touch us. We are here in Spirit. We from the Spirit Realm encourage you to enter into this gathering with such fervor that you can take from this meeting all of the love, all of the knowledge, all of the intensity of this time together with you as you return to your home. We would not ask you to leave here without taking with you all that you can take! Allow your Spirit to be nourished today. Know that the Spirit Within you has the ability to gather to self all that you will allow it to gather! Allow your mental self and your physical self to be blessed, even as we who are here in your midst are blessed!

And so with this said, JEY would once again say that you are indeed those who have come from afar for a blessing! We who are in Spirit are here to see that you receive that blessing. We would ask you to open your hearts, that you would receive it. And for those of you who have not heard this which is the voice which has allowed JEY for so many times now to use the voice to bring the message, know there is nothing to fear. Know that JEY does come only because it is the will of the Creator that this voice be used; and the one who serves as instrument has allowed that voice to be used for the glory of the Creator of All That Is. Be at Peace with who you are and be at Peace with where you are at this very minute, and where you are in your lives upon the Earth. Know that you have the ability to do good for all others. You have the ability to serve your Creator and to love and serve your fellow man. May it always be so as you live your life upon the Earth!

Be blessed and know that JEY will at this time allow another to come and give you a blessing. Be at Peace.

AMEN! This one comes because the one who is known as JEY to you has asked and has allowed this one to come and be in your midst. This one has served many times to bring messages of Love to those of you who are OMEGA and will once again, in your time together, come and simply identify by the symbolic name of HORIZON.

Know that HORIZON has come many times with much Love and is here again with much Love. HORIZON has used the symbolic name simply because it is indicative of what you are doing at this time. You are seeing over the horizon! You are seeing beyond the horizon! You have been led now to understand more, to see more; and so your vision has been expanded, and HORIZON would ask you to each day expand your vision much more, that you may be able to see further and further over the horizon, that you may not be troubled by the little things that come into your life, by the little things which you hear that have troubled your life many times. Know that HORIZON comes now to urge you to see beyond...even as you are now seeing beyond! And HORIZON would ask the Creator of All That Is to bless you in this way...May that which is the Love of the Creator surround each one of you each day of your life as you go forth to fulfill your purpose upon the Earth. Indeed, you are fulfilling that purpose! And may the Creator of All That Is be that which you wish your Creator to be, whether it is one who encompasses you with understanding, care, and love each day, or one who is Eternal Spirit who is always there as you have a need. You have the ability to envision the Creator as you wish to see the Creator. You do not have the opportunity nor the necessity to speak for the Creator! That is not your role upon the Earth; but you do have the vision now to see the Creator as it brings you peace to envision the Creator.

HORIZON comes further to say this. Each of you who are here as Spirit-in-Body are special in the sight of your Creator, even as all mankind is. But you have gone a step beyond what many who are Spirit-in-Body have done. You have sought for Truth. You have not given up. You will still seek for Truth and you will find the Truth that you seek for. Be at Peace. Know that this one who has come to you as HORIZON has come with much Love for you and continues to be one who will keep you forever in the thought of Spirit. Be at Peace.

JEY returns and give thanks that the one who is HORIZON has been in your midst. JEY would ask that you give thanks as well, for you have been blessed. JEY would at this time seek to allow you to know that there will be times in the future where you will receive messages from this one that will be sent to you if you are not present in this group. You will consider yourself always to be within the group of OMEGA. That will always be! You will continue to fulfill your purpose upon the Earth. Seek daily for the guidance that you need. You will receive it. Go now in Peace! Know that you are always in the Love of the Creator. Go in Love. AMEN!
