

MESSAGE FROM JEY, 1-11-04

JEY is here. JEY is much aware of your presence here at this time and does give thanks to our Creator that each of you have chosen to be here at this time in your life. We who come in Spirit and are in your presence at this time do delight in those of you who are here, for the Spirit Within each of you is indeed one of great shining beauty, and we give thanks for your Spirit and for the body in which it is housed at this time.

Know that as we come to be with you in Spirit, we wish to allow you to know that indeed we do come in the will of the Creator and we do come with much thanks for this opportunity to be with you. There is now an opportunity for this one who is JEY to give you some additional information that may be helpful to you as you seek to allow your own Spirit to guide you with more of the opportunities that it has to do so. Allow JEY to say this.

When one is Spirit-in-Body upon the Earth Plane, there is often not an opportunity for that mental self to know of the presence of the Spirit Within them. As JEY has said before, you are very blessed to be aware of the beauty of your Spirit and the importance of the Spirit that dwells within this body which you have. You have been aware of this now for quite some time; but JEY would add this to your knowledge. As you are aware of the Spirit Within you, there are many within your presence who are not aware of the presence of the Spirit Within them. You have the opportunity to allow your Spirit to 'so shine', as you might say, in order that others who are in your presence may be aware of the beauty of that Spirit. As you then have the opportunity to share with them the knowledge that you have which is acceptable to them, and simply the glory and the beauty of that Spirit to shine forth from you, it can be that they will be aware of the beauty of Spirit.

Your Spirit is indeed one of great beauty and it does have the ability to show forth to others who come into your presence. Allow it to be so! Be aware that the Spirit Within you, even as it has guided you in this lifetime upon the Earth, now seeks to show forth to others that it may be a guiding light to others who come to you and who seek after the reason why you have that which is simply a glow about you in order that your Spirit may be able to shine forth to others.

There is within the Spirit Realm at this time the knowledge that those who are OMEGA upon the Earth Plane have had the opportunity to fulfill that which is a purpose upon the Earth. They have been blessed in that they have been brought to the point where they are aware of that purpose and are allowing their Spirit to guide them in their actions upon the Earth. Many who are upon the Earth at this time as OMEGA are sharing their own Love, their own Beauty, their own Abilities with many others upon the Earth and are therefore multiplying the activity and the 'acceptiveness' of their Spirit upon the Earth. We do not come to you to simply ask you to go forth and gather to self all the others which you can bring to self. That is not your purpose. You are indeed here to fulfill a purpose; but know that purpose is simply to fulfill the opportunities that you have to help others upon the Earth....not to be those who proselyte and attempt to draw to you all those who would come to believe as you do. That is NOT your purpose! You are to share with them the beauty of that which is Spiritual Growth, and you do that through your actions and through those things that you can share with them without turning them away because you are too far advanced in your own thinking to meld with their thinking. And so it is important that you give to others that which you can share; but do not overwhelm them with all that you know at one time. This will defeat the purpose that you have of being able to share with them.

And so even as you are aware of much Truth at this time, know that you cannot expect others to accept all the Truth that you know at one time! In other words, you do not want to 'unload' everything that you have, all the knowledge that you have, with another who may come into your presence.

There is at this time in the Spirit Realm the knowledge that the Earth Plane is changing very rapidly with regard to understanding of Spirit. You are seeing this happen upon the Earth among those leaders of the Earth at this time. They are beginning now to unfold that which they find to be their beliefs upon the Earth. Many are not of a positive nature; but those who can now see beyond that which has been called the horizon have indeed the opportunity to open their hearts and minds so they receive Truth, and they in turn now can share Truth.

As you find leaders upon the Earth now becoming more intent upon sharing their knowledge, their country, their willingness to gather to self all who can come to share with them, know that you will find that there will be nations that will join in now sharing that which they find to be the Truth upon the Earth---as far as their knowledge is concerned.

Many will still cling to that which is a selfish outlook. In other words, they do not wish to share their native beliefs with others upon the Earth. There are many who will not share their religious beliefs, and know that by sharing they are doing that which the Creator would have them do. You will find that there are many who are very zealous of their own beliefs with regard to their religion. They are very zealous with regard to their country and the things which they hold dear in their country. As you find those who are willing to open their own borders upon the Earth, their own Truths upon the Earth, and share with others throughout the Earth Plane, you will find that they will begin to see others within their own beliefs and cultures even as they would see them. You have an opportunity as OMEGA to share your culture, your Spiritual Understanding with others who come into your presence. Even so, there will be others who cross boundaries upon the Earth and who will come into your presence; and you will then in turn be able to share that which is your own love of country with those who come into your presence. Share the love of all the beauty of the Universe with those who come into your presence! Do not be 'backward' with regard to sharing Truth, for indeed you can share much Truth and still not ostracize others who come into your presence!

Be willing to share those things which the Creator has allowed you to know, because you have been blessed in that regard. Allow others to be blessed through the knowledge which you have been given. Be aware that you must indeed be cautious with regard to how much you share, for there are indeed those who cannot accept all that you know at this time. Simply be careful with regard to how much you share! But, be willing to share what you know others will be willing to receive. You are OF the Universe. You are OF this Earth on which you live. You are OF the country in which you live. and so you are a multiple individual with regard to what you are physically and mentally. You are simply OF the Creator with regard to that which is Spirit! Everyone who comes into your presence is OF the Creator in that which is Spirit! They may be of a different culture, of a different country, of a different part of the Universe; but know that ALL ARE ONE IN SOME FORM, AND MOST OF ALL THEY ARE ONE BECAUSE THEY ARE OF THE CREATOR! Do not differentiate then between them because they are of a different country, a different culture. And know that as you begin to accept everyone who comes into your presence as being ONE because they are OF the Creator, you will look upon them in a different way and that is as it should be.

Once you have crossed that boundary, that border, know that you have now graduated into that which is OF the Creator. You are now aware of your purpose, of your intent, and your desire! Allow those things do become part of WHAT you are, even as WHO you are!

At this time now JEY is aware that there is another here in your presence that would wish to communicate. And so as JEY is here to allow that one to come to be in your presence, know that indeed it is the will of the Creator that the one will communicate with you. Be willing to accept that one. Be at Peace.

BE AT PEACE AND BE IN A TIME OF JOY, EVEN AS THIS ONE COMES IN A TIME OF JOY, FOR THIS ONE DOES COME AS SPIRIT, DOES COME IN THE WILL OF THE CREATOR, DOES COME BECAUSE THE GATEKEEPER OF OMEGA HAS ALLOWED THIS ONE TO BE IN YOUR PRESENCE!

This one will identify to you as one who has been with you in the past and does wish to come to communicate with you again, because there is a time of need. There is a time of Joy. And this one will identify to you once again as one the one who has come in the past as HORIZON. Know that you should not be surprised that this one would come again to communicate with you, for during the time that JEY was communicating with you it was said that "you now can see beyond the horizon," and that indeed is how this one who has come in the past as HORIZON has been able to identify to you....as one who was, during the time on Earth, able to see beyond the horizon and did encourage you to seek to see beyond the horizon in which you live. You have now been able to achieve that, and this one comes to congratulate you on your journey upon the Earth! You have been blessed in your journey. You have been blessed in that you have found your way. And what Horizon wishes to say to you at this time is this.

You have expressed a concern about those who are the youth upon the Earth at this time, and yet you are well aware that the actions of those who are the youth upon the Earth at this time are simply that which is the same as you observed, but perhaps in a different line of intent, when you were a youth upon the Earth! Allow those who are the youth to know of that which you see as the direction in which they should go. That is a responsibility that you have; but know that they must follow their path, even as you followed your path upon the Earth. HORIZON would ask you at this time to seek after the will of the Creator for their lives, that it may be manifest in their lives. You can do that through prayer. Allow that which is the Guardian of their Spirit to know of your concern for them, and ask that their Guardian of Spirit will seek to follow with them and allow them to be felt as a presence within the life of those who are the youth. You will know at this time that you cannot force your will upon those who are the young. You can encourage them to follow after that which you see as the right way for them to follow; but they will follow their path. You cannot stop them from doing that.

You can seek the help that they need, and that is to ask that the Spirit Within them will guide them and that the Guardian of their Spirit will be in their lives daily. With that knowledge you can rest in peace, for you know if their Spirit is directing their actions and their Guardian of Spirit is helping their Spirit Within them, you can be aware that they will indeed follow after that which is the will of the Creator for their lives.

This one who comes as HORIZON comes to say this simply to alleviate some of your fears with regard to those who are the youth in your lives upon the Earth. They will indeed eventually seek after that which is their Spiritual Journey; but you have the recourse of prayer. You have the recourse of asking their Guardians of Spirit to work with their Spirit Within. And even that you have asked that the leaders of other nations be helped by the Spirit Within you as you sleep, know that you have that recourse as well with the youth who are in your lives! Ask that your Spirit go to work with them as you are in a time of sleep. How could you have forgotten this important aspect of your Spiritual Growth! You have nothing to fear. You can send forth that Spirit to work with their Spirit as they are in need of the help that you can give them.

And so this one who comes as HORIZON asks you to simply look beyond the fears that you have on this Earth. Look beyond that which is the horizon that is part of your being upon the Earth. Know that you can seek forth and find that which is the beauty of Eternity even as you live upon the Earth! Allow it to be so. And those of us who communicate with you are here to help you in your journey and to help those who you love upon the Earth. Be at peace and know that we come and send this message to all who are OMEGA, for indeed they will receive it through that which is the written word. May it be so! May they, too, find joy and peace in this message which has been given by the one who has come to you as HORIZON. Go now in Love and with the understanding that this one comes to you with joy; and indeed we come to smile upon you and to send you our love each day of your life and each day of your journey. You are never alone! Go now in Peace.

JEY returns and would give thanks to that one for once again being in your presence. We would ask you to heed the message which has been given to you by HORIZON; for as you know, the one who is HORIZON is a Spirit of great beauty and great joy, and you do indeed need to accept that beauty and that joy and the information that the one who is HORIZON has given. Go now in Peace. Seek for and find the peace that you need in your lives in the days to come. That Peace is there. The help that you need is there! You need have no fear, for indeed the beauty of you is within you, and that is OF the Creator. What do you have to fear when the beauty of the Creator lives within you! As has been said before, that Spirit Within is indeed a precious gem! Let that not be forgotten. Go now in Peace and be in a time of Love. AMEN.
